TEARS OF HAPPINESS—Her crown in place, and a trophy in hand, 11-year-old Rose Marie Nickerson just emotionally realized she is the new Little League Princess in Pacifica. Joyful, but tearful, Rose Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. (Johnny) Ambrosius of 560 Ridgeway Drive, Pacifica, became the princess at coronation ceremonies that followed a full program of vocal, instrumental, and dancing entertainment as well as competition among five contestants for the princess' tiara. 'Irregularities' Charged

Formal DC Action To Pull From ABAG

By FRANK LaPIERRE

Daly City Councilman Frank Pacelli leveled another broadside at the Association of Bay Area Governments (ABAG) Monday night, charging the association with irregularities in keeping records of their executive meetings.

The councilman, expressing bewilderment at the manner in which the association maintained minutes of their executive meetings, said, "There are no known minutes kept, and what little is recorded is not available."

Pacelli said he was "confused over the rush" of ABAG executive meetings held, starting in November.

"They moved rather slowly for 13 months and then they (ABAG) had four rapid meetings — in November, December and February," he said.

The blast came during Monday night's council meeting in response to a letter from ABAG's executive director Warren Schmid.

Addressed to Mayor Bernard (Bud) Lycett and the city council of Daly City, the letter asked the city "to continue to work cooperatively both inside and outside of the ABAG."

"I don't know what Mr. Schmid means by 'inside and outside' but I intend to continue to go to those ABAG meetings, even though Daly City is no longer a member of that organization," Pacelli said.

Daly City formally withdrew from the nine-county, 80-city Bay Area Association in March.

Shortly after the resignation, which saw Pacelli labeling ABAG as a "supergovernment trying to impose its will on the people," the association threatened to interfere with Daly City's receiving Federal funds unless the resignation was withdrawn.

The thinly-veiled threat "appalled" some county boards of supervisors and Daly City was urged to stand fast in its dispute with ABAG.

The "show of hands" method of voting also drew sharp criticism from Pacelli.

"No one even checks to see if the voters at these ABAG meets are bonafide delegates . . . they merely raise their hands and a count it taken. Palooka could be sitting in my seat," Pacelli said.

During 1966, Standing Committees within ABAG stood at nine, according to Pacelli.

"All but five members (from a field of 48) are members of the Executive Committee,' the councilman pointed out. "The five are from the general assembly.

"For an organization that is trying to get a cross section of Bay Area governments, this is a

Four Candidates In Jeff High Contest

By DON GRIERSON

Four candidates, including incumbents James M. Cooper and Lyal Ingersoll, are running for two seats on the Jefferson Union High School District board.

Ingersoll, a Daly City contractor, has served on the board 16 years, and has been chairman of the board of trustees three times.

He was on the executive board of the San Mateo County School Boards Association in 1960.

Ingersoll is a past master of Crocker Masonic Lodge 454, and is a member of the Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce, the Daly City-Colma Lions, the Jefferson High School P-TA and the Methodist church.

He has been in Salvation Army and Scouting activities in Daly City for many years.

Ingersoll is married and has one son and two grandchildren. He has resided in Daly City since 1924.

Cooper, who resides in Pacifica, was elected to the board in 1959 and served as chairman in 1961-62.

He is a former member and was first chairman of the Pacifica Recreation Commission, and has lived in Pacifica since 1951. He was a charter member of four P-TA groups in the district, and has long been active in all phases of civic life.

He is assistant manager of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, and has been employed by the chamber 19 years.

He is a graduate of Golden Gate College and attended Oregon State University.

Cooper's platform includes proposals to "maintain a sound and properly balanced curriculum, strive for well-trained and enthusiastic teachers and compensate them adequately, and maintain a businesslike attitude toward budgeting the school dollar."

"I would also like to continue striving to locate schools near the center of school population in our communities," Cooper said.

Albert Teglia, grounds superintendent for the San Mateo Union High School District for the past 15 years, is one of two candidates opposing the incumbents.

Teglia is a native of the Daly City-Colma area, and has been active in community affairs for many years.

He is a member of the Hillside Homeowners' Imporvement Association, the Daly City-Colma Democratic Club, Public Employes' Union and is national grand president of the Italian Catholic Federation.

Teglia was chairman of a Jefferson Union High School District Boundary Study Committee.

He is basing his campaign on a promise to "seek operational ef-

Pacifica Market Held Up

Gunman Was 'Not Kidding'

By WILL THOMAS

Two robbers, one armed with a short-barrel, blued revolver, walked away with an estimated $2,000 after forcing the manager of Pacifica's Vallemar Super, a food market, to empty the store's safe and one cash register Sunday night

The manager, Luther Roots, was forced to walk out of the store with the two men, but was released across the street from the market.

He was told to walk back to the store "and don't look back" by the duo, who fled on foot.

Roots told authorities he was standing at one of the cash registers, balancing the books, when the pair entered the store, which is located at 230 Reina Del Mar in the Vallemar section of Pacifica.

One of the men, described as between 30 and 40 years of age, six feet tall, weighting about 170 pounds — approached Roots and asked, "Are you the manager?"

When Roots confirmed that he was, the suspect declared, "This is a stickup!"

"You're kidding." retorted Roots.

The man then prodded the manager with his revolver, "convincing" Roots that he was not "kidding."

"Let's get the money out of the safe," the robber demanded, while the second stranger stood in the background.

The suspect stood behind the manager, the gun nudging Roots' back, as the money was taken from the safe.

The loot from the safe and cash register were placed by

Bruno Holds Over Drive-in Permit

San Bruno councilmen postponed a decision on the A&W Root Beer Drive-in use permit Monday, and referred the controversial issue to the city's traffic safety committee.

Councilmen Neil Christal and Maurice Hamilton requested a traffic safety committee study of the situation at the El Camino Real, Jenevein Avenue intersection before rendering a decision in the matter.

John Murphy, a neighborhood property owner who is appealing a planning commission decision to grant the use permit, asked councilmen if "this (ordering of traffic study) means you will approve the permit if the traffic safety committee has no objections?"

The councilman, showing a reluctanace to act upon the highly controversial matter, said there has ben no decision "one way or the other, and we will vote on the entire issue after receiving the traffic report."

Murphy presented a petition signed by about 400 San Bruno property owners, opposing the establishment, at the Monday night meeting.

Attorneys for Grady Frazier, owner of the site, and the A&W Root Beer Company presented a similar petition signed by businessmen and property owners who favor the establishment.

Murphy, who owns a ten-unit apartment building adjacent to the site of the proposed drive-in, and other neighborhood property owners again cited police difficulties experienced at the firm's El Camino Real restaurant in San Mateo as evidence the business will attract an "undesirable element."

"I am a San Francisco policeman, and I have been patroling a drivei-n restaurant in the city

Survey Review Planned

Jefferson Hi Study Report

The University of California's School of Education at Berkeley is preparing to take to citizens of the community "facts" that Asst. Prof. Richard T. Stout has obtained in his studies of the Jefferson High School District.

The "facts" will relate to the district's boundaries, racial balance and population projections.

Stout, who has queried citizens throughout the district has asked Jefferson trustees to guide him on an approach most feasible for a public presentation.

The professor wants small enough groups, generally, Supt. Ed Morgan pointed out this week, to encourage less-formal by-play at a series of meetings.

He hopes to learn from the residents in the district whether or not "my conclusions were based on adequate facts, and whether the conclusions seemed consistent with those facts."

Stout offered trustees two possible routes to travel:

One — "That I make a presentation in which I reiterate the assumptions contained in the orinal proposal made to you and iginal proposal made to you and present what I believe to be pertinent data. I would then call upon the citizens to suggest alternative solutions to the concerns which we share."

Two — "To make a presenta-

A 4-Way Scramble For 2 Laguna Salada Seats

The April 18 elections will feature a four-way scramble for two Laguna Salada Elementary School District Board of Trustee seats, in Pacifica.

Businessman Stan Farber, owner and operator of Farber's Pharmacy in Pacifica, is seeking one of two seats.

An active civic leader since moving to Pacifica from San Francisco six years ago, Farber was the first vice president of the city's Jaycees and is currently chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Freight Rate Committee.

He has also served as chairman of the Pacifica Hospital Study Committee, and is a member of the Masonic Lodge, Islam Shrine Temple, the Ortega P-TA, and the American and California Pharmaceutical Associations.

Farber is a graduate of Lowell High School in San Francisco, and the University of Arizona.

He is a captain in the Army Reserves, and served two years' active duty in the Army Medical Corps.

Farber is married and has two children.

His platform includes proposals to expand the utilization of data processing techniques in the district "to reduce clerical time and cost," use of cable television in the schools and for community education projects, and closer association of the Laguna Salada board and the high school trustees and city council members.

Pacifica attorney Sidney Lorvan again is seeking a seat on the Laguna Salada Union School District Board of Trustees.

Extra Pay Not Held in Favor

Tabulation of a questionnaire circulated by the Jefferson High School District Teachers' Association indicated that most faculty members completing the form would favor abolition of all extra pay for extra-curricular chores.

That these teachers would prefer equalization of extra assignments and elimination of additional payment for extra activities was the position presented trustees of the Jefferson-High District in Daly City Monday.

The question that led to this revelation was one of ten queries formulated for the most part by Dell O. Cooper of the district teachers' association.

Cooper told trustees the form was distributed to faculty members of Terra Nova, Oceana, Westmoor and Jefferson High schools, but not to Thornton, and that a 60 per cent return was experienced — that is, about 197 out of the 320 teachers completed the questionnaire and returned them to Cooper.

Cooper's questionnaire was one of three pieces of correspondence relating to the extra-pay premise received by trustees.

The coaches' association, which was granted an extra-pay schedule last year, has requested continuance of the program.

Joe McGrath, president of the Jefferson District Coaches' Asciation, re-outlined that group's continued premise that "all teachers who qualify should be paid for their extra work."

Other segments of the faculty, however, have contended that

Three Other Races For Area Voters

Seven candidates are running for the two seats to be filled in the South San Francisco Unified School District.

They are incumbent Hale F. Porter, John J. Burke, Young Han Choo, James G. Christensen, Robert T. Lambertson, Lewkowitz and eight other candidates are competing.

In the Jefferson Elementary District, incumbent Joseph Lewkowitz and eith other candidates are competing.

Other candidates are Dorothy D. Adams, Gordon H. Cartwright, Karl J. Clar, Beulah M. Elsberry, Don C. Gibbons, Jeanne Kennaugh, Ray L. Massoni and Edward J. Tomasello.

In the San Bruno Park District, incumbents Harry F. Redlick and Eugene M. Rollins are opposed by insurance agent Warren S. Michael.

Last Meeting In Old City Hall

The Daly City Council, in its final meeting before moving into the new multi-million-dollar civic center on Sullivan Avenue, Monday night established a commercial office district for the city.

In effect, the new law, passed by unanimous vote of the council, would provide for some districts within the city to contain only certain types of commercial businesses.

The matter had been discussed by the council and city staff for almost a year and numerous changes had been made before its adoption at the close of Monday's public hearing.

With the new "C-O" law, control of exactly which types of business to be allowed around the new civic center will be spelled out clearly.

Establishment of a "design review board," headed by City Planner Edward Lawson, has also been discussed, along with the C-O ordinance, in recent weeks.

However, the council tabled for further study the proposed design ordinance more than two weeks ago. It was expected to be brought up again in the near future.

A combination of a commercial office and design review law would give the city power to control not only the type of business, but also the exterior building design.

Included in the "acceptable" list of offices for the C-O District are banks, savings and loan companies telegraph offices, finance companies, title companies, travel agencies and "public use" businesses.

Commercial offices which will require a use permit to operate in this type district are barber and beauty shops, churches and other religious organizations, non-commercial clubs and lodges, private schools and colleges, hospitals and restaurants.

The public hearing on the matter closed Monday night and the council took immediate action to put the new law into effect.

State Urges Extension Of Highway

The State Division of Highways has requested authority to extend the proposed Route 186 Freeway to South Airport Boulevard in San Bruno, City Manager Gerard S. Vergeer revealed Monday.

New plans submitted to the city also provide for minor changes in several access streets approaching the freeway.

Route 186 was to stop at the Bayshore Freeway under original plans.

The traffic safety committee is studying the revised plans to determine if they are compatible with the city's overall street plan.

Extra Pay for Teacher?
Many Not in Favor of It

extra work involving preparation of classroom activities should be considered in the same light.

The coaches, on the other hand, say the "preparation for, and the evaluation of a teacher's classroom work is part of his job; therefore not extra."

The high school business departments' instructors, who similarly filed a "brief" with trustees, call the current schedule — as applied both to coaches and "others" who have extra chores — presumably such as drivers' education — "inequitable."

"We believe," a statement from business teachers read, "that the contribution of each individual in each department is of equal value and should be so considered by all those involved in education."

They said it is impossible to assign "different 'extra pay' values to different teachers in different departments with different educational responsibilities."

Continuation of the present extra pay schedule, such as received by the coaches, the business teachers stated, "can only further dissatisfaction on the part of present staff members in the future."

tion similar (to one, above) . . . but in addition to present alternatives. I would then ask of the citizens that they discuss them with me."

He sees a "disadvantage" in each proposal.

In the first, Stout said, there might be the possibility "the citizens will not have had time to consider alternatives and will not be able to present solutions in which all or most of our concerns are dealt with."

And the most "serious disadvantage" of Stout's second proposal, he said, is "that opinions expressed by persons voluntarily attending a meeting of this type may not be representative of the opinions of the majority of citizens who do not attend."

He added, "I do not wish to create a situation in which the board of trustees has access only to the responses of persons who feel most strongly about an issue."

Trustees appeared to favor the second alternative, though they went on record as lending Stout support in whichever direction he chose to go.

One of the primary concerns, evidently of both Stout and the board, is the selection of "representative" groups to which Stout might present his facts, at the same time reaching all segments of the community involved.

With one suspect on each side of the manager, the three men walked from the store.

As they crossed Reina Del Mar, Gladys Thaxton went to the back of the store and called Pacifica police.

After the two robbers and Roots had crossed the street, the two hold-up men directed Roots to return to the store, without looking back.

The suspects then fled on foot.

No car was seen.

One suspect was wearing a tan, fuzzy parka, with the hood pulled up, witnesses told police.

His accomplice was described as between 30 and 40 years old, and a six-footer weighing about 160 pounds. Witnesses said he was wearing a grey suit jacket, grey slacks and a tan hat.

The pair rejected coin and checks in the cash register; but they took a man's gold wrist watch.

Graduation Study Slated

An unexpected appeal for an end to eighth grade graduation ceremonies at the Benjamin Franklin School in Daly City was presented at Tuesday's meeting of the Jefferson Elementary School Board.

"Students treat the graduation exercise as some sort of joke, and the activity has become a meaningless and unruly program," Delegation of Teachers and P-TA officials declared. declared.

Eleanor M. Miller, chairman of the Benjamin Franklin Faculty Council, told trustees most students and teachers at the school favor eliminating the graduation exrcise.

The board ordered a study of the matter, but agreed to continue the graduation exercise at least through this year "because the children are expecting it."

"This requires a special kind of experience, and I believe I have that experience," he said.

Mrs. Ruth M. Boudinot, a Laguna Salada School District trustee since 1959, has also entered the race for the Jefferson High School District board.

She is a graduate of Swarthmore College in Pennsylvania with a degree in psychology, and has resided in Pacifica about 12 years.

Mrs. Boudinot is active in Pacifica P-TA organizations, Cub Scouts, the American Field Service foreign student program, and is a sponsor of the Pacifica Association of Performing Arts and Family Service Agency Auxiliary.

She has two children attending elementary school and one who is a junior at Oceana High School.

Prior to moving to Pacifica, Mrs. Boudinot worked as an economic analyst and researcher in Washington, D.C.

During her eight years as a Laguna Salada trustee, she has been active in seeking financing for the district, and has attended numerous conferences on personnel relations, curriculum policy formation, finance and budgeting.

Coast District Registration For Summer

Registration for the 1967 summer school of the Laguna Salada School District is being held this week, April 10-14 at each of the 13 elementary schools. Parents or guardians must register children during regular school hours. For those parents unable to do so during the meeting, Summer School Principal Nathan Green announces that children may be registered at the district office Saturday, April 15 from 9 a.m. to noon.

According to Green, the elective program for students in grades 4-7 has been extended this year to include several new classes. Hoping to meet the interests and needs of more students, plans are underway to include instrumental music as a part of the elective if sufficient numbers of present music students register for the summer session.

Brochures announcing all aspect of the upcoming program were distributed to parents via the pupils this week.

Another announcement this week is that the session, Laguna Salada's seventh annual summer program, will be conducted at the Linda Mar and San Andreas schools, thereby allowing children in the northern end of the district to attend one school, those in the southern end another. Should enrollment exceed the capacity of the two buildings a third will be selected.

The summer school will operate from June 26 to July 28 from 8:30 a.m. to 12:40 p.m. daily.

Garbage 'Will Pile Up'

By FRANK LaPIERRE

Within 24 hours after Brisbane cuts off the single access route to the Sierra Point dump, San Francisco's 1,700 tons of daily garbage will begin piling up in the streets, Leonard Steffanelli said Tuesday.

"And it seems at this time Brisbane can legally do it," San Francisco's Scavenger boss told newsmen shortly after being informed of Monday's ruling by Superior Court Judge Harold Underwood.

"I just never believed it could happen (the ruling in favor of Brisbane). I'm just now waking up to that fact and it scares me," Steffanelli said.

Once Sunset Scavengers and Golden Gate Scavenger Companies — both owned by Steffanelli — fill up their fleets of trucks," we will just let the garbage pile up in the streets — thanks to the irresponsible action of a group of Brisbane residents," Sanitary Land Fill President John Moscone said.

"The Sanitary Land Fill Company has instructed its attorneys to pursue all appropriate remedies, including whatever appeal is required from the decision denying our contractural right to dispose of San Francisco's refuse on our land in Brisbane," Moscone said.

Moscone said the fact that San Francisco's garbage will be allowed to stack up in the streets unless yesterday's ruling is reversed" is absolutely inconceivable to us . . . How can it be tolerated?"

Asked if the city had ordered roadblocks set up on the access road, Brisbane Police Chief Leland Dyer said, "not until I am assured we have won the case."

pretty poor showing," Pacelli said.

This board has developed a set of principles which it urges be given careful consideration in the coming deliberations before the (California) Legislature regarding proposals to create a Bay Area regional government," Santa Clara supervisors said on the matter.

Included in the proposals was the question of what functions should be assigned to any new governmental structure "rather than attempting to fit functions to a preconceived form."

Another of the seven-point proposals the Santa Clara board is asking support for is "regional government should not be imposed on the Bay Area without a vote of the people within the region" and that cities and special districts cannot be formed without an election.

"Why should regional government be mandated from Sacramento or Washington?" the supervisors asked.

The Board of Supervisors asked for support of a one-man, one-vote proposal: "There is need for an immediate change in the representation on the ABAG Executive Committee to better reflect the population of member jurisdictions."

ABAG's goals and organizations committee has recognized the present imbalance, according to the board and urged the executive committee be reconstituted "with all due haste to reflect the one-man, one-vote principle."

Clerk Is Periled By Knife

A pair of knife-wielding robbers held up a Daly City liquor store shortly after midnight Sunday and escaped with almost $2,000.

Police said the men walked into the Jug Shop, 230 Skyline Plaza, and forced the night clerk to "hand over all the money or we'll kill you."

The clerk, who asked his identity not be revealed, described the knife-toting robber as dark complexioned, "about 38," 5 feet 11 inches tall, 180 pounds, wearing a blue nylon jacket and blue baseball cap with red letters. His partner was similar in height and weight and was wearing a blue suit, the clerk told police.

They fled the area on foot after telling the clerk "not to make any moves," police said.

S.S.F. Man Injured By Pipe Machine

A South San Francisco man was critically injured Thursday afternoon when his clothing became entangled in an automatic pipe threading machine.

John Charles Bennett, 52, an employe at Sun Chemical Corporation at 20 South Linden Avenue, is in critical condition with head and back injuries in the intensive care unit at Peninsula Hospital.

Kenneth Williams, manager of the chemical plant, said he heard "strange noises" coming from the boiler room, and when he investigated about 1:30 p.m. Bennett was entrapped in the electric machine.

Williams shut off power to the machine.

Bennett, a fireman at the plant, had been threading pipe on the machine.

Two Bruno Residences Burglarized

Two residences on Fifth Avenue in San Bruno were burglarized over the weekend, police reported.

Approximately $200 in cash was taken from the home of Louis E. Comollo while the family was out to dinner Sunday, police said.

Someone kicked in the kitchen door and ransacked the house between 6:30 p.m. and 9:30 p.m.

About $25 in coins was taken from the home of Erma Marie Germer. Entrance to the house was gained through forcing a bedroom window.

Two other residences in the city were broken into over the weekend, but apparently nothing was taken from them, police said.

Motorist Is Badly Hurt

A young Daly City motorist was in the intensive care unit of Mary's Help Hospital Monday with severe head injuries suffered when his car collided with another vehicle at the corner of Acton and Bellevue Avenues Sunday.

Charles Bricker, 23, of 706 Southwood Drive, crashed into a car driven by Constance Woods, 38, of 878 Templeton Avenue, shortly after 4 p.m.

Mrs. Woods told investigators she was already well into the intersection when she saw Bricker's car speeding towards her.

Police were unable to question Bricker about the incident and the matter is pending.

Man Hurt– Hit SSF Pole

A Daly City man was injured early Sunday when he lost control of his automobile on El Camino Real and struck a utility pole in South San Francisco.

Benjamin R. Frick, 29, 275 Hillsdale Avenue, was treated for lacerations and a mild concussion at Mary's Help Hospital after the wreck occurred about 4 a.m. He was later released.

A South San Francisco man was injured in another wreck early Sunday when he struck a parked vehicle at the intersection of Miller Avenue and Airport Boulevard.

MISS HAZEL DILL, 433 Southgate Avenue, Daly City, is fulling every minute of her "second chance life" these days by urging women everywhere to see the free "Breast Self-Examination" film. Theatre manager Howard Naify will open the doors to the Serra Theatre, free to the public, April 19, at 12:30 p.m. for the special film. Dr. Diane Fink, staff physician in charge of Chemp-therapy at Fort Miley's Veteran's Hospital and clinical instructor of medicine at U.C. Hospital will be in atendance for a "Question and Answer Session" after the 1 o'clock film (Post Photo)

Public Ownership for Natural Resources Needed, Freeman

Public ownership of such natural resources as San Francisco Bay and San Bruno Mountain may be the only means of protecting them from development as housing or industrial sites, Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman indicated.

Secretary Freeman, in San Francisco to address the Sierra Club's tenth biennial Wilderness Conference last week, made that indication while pleading for the Kennecott Copper Company to refrain from developing a copper mine in a federal wilderness area in the Northern Cascades of Washington State.

Freeman told newsmen this is the first time he has ever made such a personal appeal to a company, because, in his mind, never has there been such a potential massive invasion of a public wilderness area.

The Secretary noted that Kennecott owns, or has mineral rights to, some 3,000 acres on Miners Ridge within the Wilderness Area inside a National Forest.

Because the company owned these rights before the Wilderness Area was established, he said the only legal way the federal government can prevent the company from starting an open strip copper mine in the area is to buy the property.

If Kennecott goes ahead with its indicated plans, he said, the federal government could attempt to purchase the property through condemnation or outright purchase, he said, but there is no other legal way to stop them.

"In this country," he said, "we do not take property away from people without compensating them for it."

The same principles, he indicated, would apply to other properties, such as the privately owned San Bruno Mountain, and possibly to the large portions of San Francisco Bay which is privately owned.

He did not indicate any belief that development of such properties could long be stalled, even by such agencies as the Bay Conservation and Development Commission, without establishing some public right to the property that would exceed existing private property rights.

He praised California's tax assessment law which allows farm land to be taxed as farm land, rather than for its "possible highest use," and said this seems to be an effective scheme for preservation of rural aeraas, if it works.

Secretary Freeman said the Department of Agriculture's Soil Conservation Service is working on a comprehensive land use plan for the entire United States, to serve as a guide for development of the nation's land resources.

Living up to such a plan, as population of the nation approaches 300,000,000 only 33 years from now, will be difficult.

"We have now," he concluded, "the power, literally, to move mountains. The next few years will determine if we have the wisdom to refrain from doing so."

Bikes on Sale

Daly City Police Chief R. A Petrocchi announced this week that miscellaneous girls' and boys' bicycles will be sold at a pubic auction April 14, starting at 10 a.m., at the City Hall, 75 Wellington Avenue. Sales will be for cash, for as-is condition of bikes, the chief pointed out.

D.C. Citizen Aids Police In Burglary

An alert citizen questioned the removal of items, including a television-stereo console from a home on Vale Street in Daly City and police arrested two San Francisco men a short time later.

Police said Sgt. John Kalbmann and Patrolman Art Glass arrested Samuel Brown, 2169 Golden Gate, and Robert Lewis Thomas, 835 Baker Street, charging them with the burglary of the Frank Wigham home at 119 Vale Street in Daly City Friday.

Two others possibly involved in the crime got away, but they left behind a car reported stolen in San Francisco.

Brown and Thomas also were driving a car stolen a short time before the alleged burglary in Daly City. The owner had not yet missed the vehicle, police said.

The citizen had seen men removing goods from the Wigham house and called police, telling them he thought a burglary had been committed.

Sgt. Kalbmann and Patrolman Glass saw the suspects transferring the console from the trunk of their car to the back seat and stopped to investigate in the vicinity of Bruno and School Streets, about two blocks from the scene of the crime.

Leaders Study Prevention Of Holiday Mishaps

North San Mateo county's cities are planning now to prevent highway accidents on Memorial Day, July 4 weekends and the remaining summer vacation.

A group of civic leaders assigned by their cities to plan for reduction of traffic injuries and fatalities met under chairmanship of Municipal Judge T. J. DeLarios at his court in South San Francisco last week. They discussed an easily remembered name for the safety program and practiced with several letter combinations to evolve a catchy new name for the project.

In a "brainstorming session" the committee came up with STOP, a mnemonic device for Stop That Other Person, SLOW — Save Lives on Wheels, and similar initial combinations. These were suggested by Sgt. Gus Nicolopulos of the South San Franciso police department.

A safety check of visible automobile safety devices was moved forward for service clubs to man. These include Lions, Kiwanis and Rotary. Chambers of Commerce, suggested concentration on local publicity for local action.

Don Waite, of Daly City, representing Kiwanis clubs in the area, pledged their support. Dale With, acting mayor of Brisbane, promised participation by his Lions Club.

The CBer's, a north county radio operators group, also promised help.

Pacifica's representatives were Wally Rapozo and Nathaniel Marks, members of the Safety Commission.

Judge DeLarios' committee will meet again on April 15.

COMMENT

The Post Prefers These Candidates

The primary duty of a school board member is to consider, above all, the educational programs of our children — the future of our great nation. To accomplish this a board must have two things: harmony among its members and a positive approach to various problems or situations that arise.

Uncertainty should not be a part of a board of education that is attempting to patch together a community that has been torn apart by so-called "pressure groups" on both sides of the neighborhood fence.

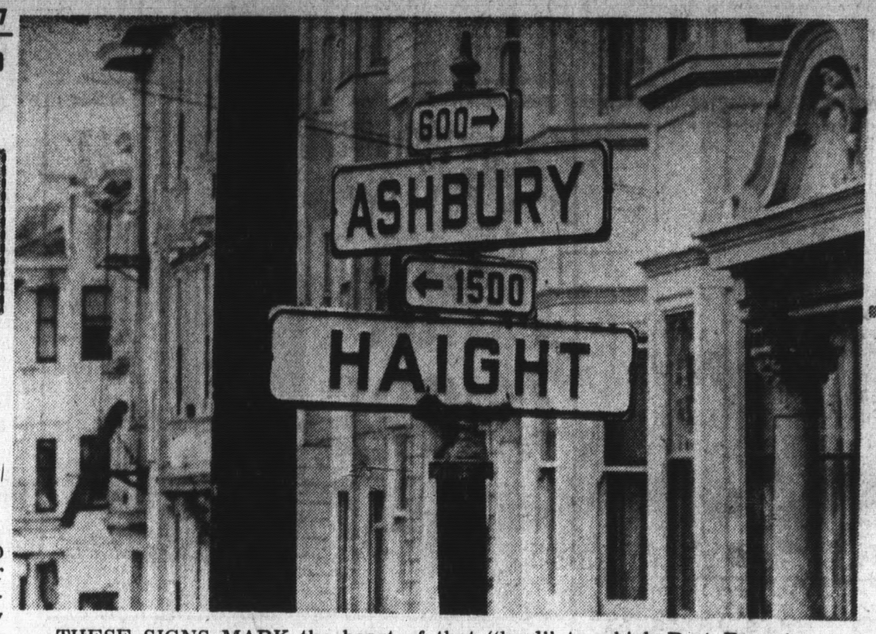
Rather, it is time the board molded itself once again into a unit and forged ahead for the good of all our children and for the good of the community. This requires positive, unbiased leadership by every trustee.

The Post finds that out of a field of nine candidates entered in the race, two demonstrably qualified persons meet these challenging requirements and have the potential to guide the Jefferson Elementary School District board into an effective educational force in this community.

Both Dorothy Adams and Ray Masoni are active in community affairs and have expressed a sincere desire and willingness to do something constructive for the education of all our children. And, more importantly, they have made themselves familiar with the strengths as well as the shortcomings of the present elementary education program in Daly City.

Neither Mrs. Adams nor Mr. Massoni have any "axes to grind" with the present school board members or the administration. Both are well respected by community leaders.

The Post feels there is a definite need to elect these two candidates to fill the posts now open on the school board. We urge our readers to go to the polls next Tuesday and cast their ballots for Dorothy Adams and Ray Massoni.



THESE SIGNS MARK the heart of that "land" to which Post Reporter Frank LaPierre ventured on "Special Assignment: The Bearded Curtain" (Post Photo)

Post Writer 'Vanishes' Behind Bearded Curtain

By FRANK LaPIERRE

(Post reporter Frank LaPierre, who has covered wars in the Far East, recently arranged with the proper federal, state and local authorities to tour the psychedelic state of Haight-Ashbury, billed by the Gray Line Company as "The only foreign tour within the continental United States," and came back across the border unscathed, if not a little shaken by what he saw—Editor.)

Apprehension griped those of us on the huge Gray Line tour bus as it approached "Checkpoint Hippie" on the very edge of the Bearded Curtain.

This was the first time any of us, including our bus driver (whom I suspect was a CIA agent sent to spy on the elements that lurked in that never-never land), had ever ventured across this invisible barrier which separates conformists from non-conformists — otherwise known as The Love Generation.

Oh, we had heard rumors of what went on in that district. Every once in a while a hippie would grow tired of putting the whole world on, shave off his beard, get a permanent and write a book or give an expose account of what went on in that mysterious happening. But, most of us knew the stories weren't true. That they had been built up so some unknowing newsman would hang on every word and blow it up even further.

Stories of youngsters taking pot (the kind you SMOKE) and Acid (like on sugar, Dad), had emitted from this area for many months. Like a magnet, it continued to draw defectors from the surrounding neighborhood across its borders to be swallowed up and often never heard from again.

The bus driver swallowed hard and announced, "We are now entering the largest Hippie colony in the world and the very heart and fountain head of the Hippie subculture."

A shudder ran through the passengers. All of a sudden I didn't feel as brave as I had that same morning when I accepted the assignment. But there was no turning back. The die was cast and the bus rolled forward into Haight Street and crawled slowly down the block.

The stores looked much as they did on the Outside.

One store advertised "broken glass replaced" while another sign in a coffee shop window advised persons to "bring flowers for the Gray Line tour today."

Generous Hippies smiled. They waved. They gestured at the bus and its passengers who exchanged open-mouthed gasps for Hippie smiles. The Love Generation felt lovely even in the rain!

"You will not that many of the natives bear a resemblance to something out of the mountain boys and have the same hostile shyness, but the similarity ends there," the bus driver whispered into the intercom system.

Rochester, N.Y., student Laurie Schane shook her head in disbelief.

"Certainly we have beatniks back home, but nothing like this. We're much more conservative," she said, staring after a Shaggy One bouncing down the street with a walking stick draped over his shoulder.

"Heavens," Betty Pasch exclaimed. "Can't they DO something about them? I don't know WHAT, but SOMETHING."

"Just look at that one over there . . . what's he DOING," a little old lady in a near state of shock demanded of the bus driver.

Ignoring the question the driver rambled on "to most of the squares (that's Hippie talk for us Outsiders), this is indeed a strange world, in fact many strange worlds. Even for the Hippies it is often a strange world, particularly when they take their trips — via the LSD route."

The learned driver (reading from a program undoubtedly prepared by the Free World government), explained that LSD created vivid impressions of the world about Hippies.

"Marijuana of course, is a household staple here, enjoyed by the natives to stimulate their sense much to the frustration of the State's Narcotic Enforcement Agency," the driver volunteered knowingly.

A liaison officer of the Hippies, Stan Miklose, came aboard the bus to show the passengers many of the inhabitants of Hippieville could speak fairly good English (I went to school in your country, one Hippie explained), and were anxious to make contact with the Outside World.

But some aboard the bus thought Miklose and his crowd were just after Foreign Aid.

"If I gave you a million dollars would you take it and get a haircut . . . and change your way of life?" Chicagoan James Costanza dared Miklose.

"What would I do with all that money," the long-haired youth smiled back. "Like I already got everything I want. No thanks, you keep your million dollars."

Frustrated, Costanza offered the money once again. "Now tell the truth, if I offered you a million dollars you'd take it, just to change your way of life, maybe get married."

"Man, I AM married and you HAVE offered the money. And I STILL don't want it," Miklose rose and bounced off the bus as it once again approached the border and the driver (looking through a glossary of hippie terms), announced "we're splitting this town."

A sigh of relief went up from those aboard the bus as it crossed into "safe" territory and came to a stop.

"Folks, you just ventured through the internationally famous Haight-Ashbury district," the driver noted to the attentive adventurers aboard his special bus.

We were told the bus leaves the Santa Fe depot daily at 11 a.m. for a tour of San Francisco, passing through the Bearded Curtain at approximately noon.

Stepping down from the vehicle, back safe and (mostly) sound where we started at the corner of Oak and Mason Streets, we snapped the driver a smart salute, gave everyone a smile, breathed deeply and exhaled slowly before we, too, split the scene.

'Modified' Ridge Route Said Costly

Frank LaPierre

ENOUGH ALREADY HAS BEEN SAID about that "Ridge Route" San Francisco has proposed to protect their Crystal Springs water supply. But what hasn't been said (cause no one DARES compare emotion with money) is the cost per motorist if they do make the route higher up and away from the lakes.

First, the cost will almost double that of the "Modified Adopted Route" on the basis of The City's consultant estimates of $13,840,000 against $7,586,000.

The State claims they don't have the time to check into the consultant's estimates, however, a cursory examination indicates the difference in construction costs "could even be more," director John Erreca, of the State's Highway Commission, informs us.

And to add insult to our already injured pocketbook, we are further informed that the motorist would be footing costs of $23 million more over a 20 year period if that "Ridge Route" goes through. Not being a Ridge Runner, and always impressed with money that counts into the millions, along with simmering because it's almost April 17, I say our northern Big Brother has set his sights too high — up the ridge.

DALY CITY FLATTERED — By the number of appreciation letters it has been getting from the Southern Hills Homeowners Association — and both on the very same day. The first letter was a "thank you" for the trees the city donated to homeowners in the area, followed by a "sincere appreciation" for the assistance the city gave the area in improving traffic controls on Alta Vista Way and South Hill Blvd.

The letters took both Daly City manager Ed Frank and city engineer Art Reschke somewhat by surprise.

Usually the city gets flooded (whatever happened to the sunshine, by the way??) with letters of criticism.

IT'S ONLY COSTING $362,750 to beautify the Junipera Serra Freeway north from Eastmoor Avenue. Another $50,000 in materials (shrubs, flowers, etc.) will be furnished by the State. The engineer's estimate for the project was $484,185. Now that you know all this, don't you feel better?

And speaking of beautification — Daly City planner Ed Lawson has asked Uncle for $60,000 to accomplish a $142,000 spruce-up program for the city.

If you're not already confused, here's the way it works: The city has spent an average of $22,000 in the past. Anything over this amount the Federal Government matches dollar for dollar.

Sooo . . . 60 plus 60 plus that 22 average from years past and, voila, there's the $142,000 Lawson is looking for.

★ ★ ★

FLAG WAVING THIEF? — Daly City police are still trying to figure out why anyone would want to steal 16 flags (and poles) from the exclusive Lake Merced Golf and Country Club course. The big Memorial Day parade is more than a month away.

★ ★ ★

SHORTLY AFTER MAYOR LYCETT proclaimed last Saturday as Bowling Association Day in Daly City, Westlake Merchants formed a bowling league at (naturally) Westlake Bowl. Yours Truly was (unanimously) elected to the captainship of the Post team and immediately took on the formidable Westlake Liquors team — with James Trever, owner of the huge shopping center signed up on the liquor team.

After only one game, The Post had that Westlake Liquor team on their knees — laughing so hard they could barely keep up with their 190 plus averages.

But Post team members vowed to show 'em next time around. After all, with the highest averages on the West Coast it seems the pennant, or flag or whatever we're playing for, is in the bag . . . almost!

RICHARD LESTER IS THOUGHT TO BE BRITISH. He's as British as anyone from Philadelphia can be. But he rightfully earned that mistaken nationality by making both Beatles films, "Hard Day's Night" and "Help"; and the enormously clever "The Knack," the decidedly funny "Mouse on the Moon" and "The Running, Jumping and Standing Still Film" and the unequivocally delightful "A Funny Thing Happened to Me on the Way to the Forum."

But he's American and will stay on home soil for his next highly ambitious venture "Petulia." On our home soil, that is, not his. The cast and crew have settled down in San Francisco for 11 weeks of work and rainy weather, to the delight of residents, tourists, and an unjaded press.

After two pictures with the Beatles, anything would be easy. So he's cast what he terms a "sad, love story" with such international stars as Julie Christie, George C. Scott, Kim Hunter, Pippa Scott, Dick Chamberlain, Arthur Hill, Diana Hyland, Shirley Knight, Joseph Cotton, Stan Freeburg and newcomer Rick Cluchey.

Undaunted by our seasonal wet weather, the curious-looking young genius assured us "we're the only company who has insurance against sunshine. It's not wise to prepare yourself for accidents in filmmaking, that's what makes it exciting."

Lester admits to being facetious 85 per cent of the time, and his appearance almost confirms it. Over breakfast last week, he greeted us in a blue blazer, pink shirt and wide polka-dot tie. His bald head is fringed by a satanic fringe which frames his long, thin face like impudent quotation marks and gives his bright and intelligent eyes a pixieish look so that his evasiveness to direct questions are right in character.

Which directors influenced him as a young man? "My favorites would comprise a list of about 20 but surely Keaton and Welles would be included."

Since the trend toward youth and youthful attitudes has dominated the best in contemporary filmmaking, how did he feel about older directors who were once great. "Since the average age of movie audiences is 18, as the director gets older, he draws away from his audience and loses communication. They stretch away from their audiences and become a middle-aged man in Mod clothes."

Won't the public assume that "Petulia" is a comedy, having set a style in that medium already. "I'm associated with comedy right now, only because my latest picture, 'How I Won the War,' hasn't been released yet. It is not a comedy."

One feels that Lester is so much in tune with this generation because he doesn't believe in straight answers. He moves in whichever direction his artistic nature and creative mind leads. There may be a script from which he and producer Ray Wagner and coproducer Don Devlin (also bright young men from the television industry) are working but then again they may improvise as they go along.

To indicate the scope and reputation that preceded Lester's making his first film in this country, Warner Bros. granted him complete artistic control. This is most unusual in an industry nearly strangled by bureaucracy, red tape and controlling boards of directors. Preminger, Wyler, Wilder and Stevens are the only directors we know of that have that individual power.

While both Wagner and Lester admit that the John Haase novel, "Me and the Arch Kook Petulia," which has Balboa as its setting, provoked the screenplay, the film will not emerge as a comedy the way the book does. They agreed that Miss Christie was the only actress to play Petulia.

The Book Shelf

Manchester Both Kind and Brutal

Samuel Chandler

William Manchester's "The Death of the President" is a better book than the cutdown version in Look Magazine promised.

Manchester is a master weaver bringing together strands from all over the world. He is a novelist who works with a narrative that happens to be history.

There is romance and suspense throughout the entire book. There is an emphasis on characterization that brings through the personality of "Jack" and "Jackie" and all the others involved.

FOR EXAMPLE, "Mrs. Kennedy hadn't budged. It would seem that in the pitiless exposure of the open car, surrounded by eyes, nothing was left to her; nevertheless she was trying to preserve a cantlet of privacy.

"Bowing her head, she continued to hold her husband. If she released him, the harrowing spectacle would reappear, and she couldn't endure that. Avoiding the faces around her, she crumpled lower and lower, pressing her husband's strained face to her breast.

"There was a strained hush. The men could hear her making little weeping sounds."

On one page, Manchester is kind to his characters, onanother he is brutal. As the narrative begins, for example, he treats Lyndon Johnson with an understanding deserved by an active politician who is docked in the Vice Presidency.

At the other end, however, he paints him as one given to Texas chauvinism; in contrast to Mrs. Kennedy's gracefulness.

☆ ☆ ☆

YET he is kinder to Johnson than to some others who figure in events of that tragic day. Governor Connally is drawn as a poor boy who made good then turned his back on the Texas poor. Senator Yarborough is robbed of any amiability. Larry O'Brien and Kenneth O'Donnell are viewed as the efficiency twins.

Despite her objections to the book and her court fight against it, the heroine is Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy. It is a testament to her courage, her wisdom, her high birth and breeding.

In similar manner her husband is pictured as a hero of great gallantry and valor.

The book is divided into a prologue, two parts and an epilogue. Each of these is in turn divided. The names of the divisions came from code terms used by the U.S. Secret Service for various characters and places that appear in the story. They are explained in a glossary that is most interesting.

President Kennedy was called "Lancer"; his wife "Lace"; his daughter "Lyric"; his son "Lark." President Johnson, on the other hand, was "Volunteer"; his wife was "Victoria"; Lynda was "Velvet"; and Lucy was "Venus." The White House was the "Castle"; the Executive Mansion "the Crown"; Hyannis Port "the Cabin"; the Pentagon "the Calico" and the LBJ Ranch "the Volcano."

Better Business

Report Obscene Telephone Calls

Lorene Beasley

The Better Business Bureau receives many complaints concerning obscene phone calls.

The Bureau can do nothing to stop such calls outside of advising the complainants to report them to the local telephone company's business office.

Telephone companies across the nation are working closely with police officials and other law enforcement agencies to curb the increasing number of harassing and obscene calls. Specialists in the telephone companies and police departments will gladly give their help and advice and try to track down the origin of the calls.

☆ ☆ ☆

IF you receive such calls DO NOT IDENTIFY yourself or GIVE YOUR NUMBER when the first words of an unknown caller are "Who is this"? or "What number is this"?

Such questions should be answered, "Who are you calling"? or "What number are you dialing"?

If the caller breathes heavily, does not talk or identify himself to your satisfaction, hang up at once.

Also, hang up at the first obscene word.

Members of the military departments recently met with representatives of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company to develop joint procedures to detect, identify and prosecute perpetrators of obscene and harassing telephone calls to dependents of members of the armed forces. Relatives of servicemen serving in Vietnam have been particularly plagued.

Ignoring obscene calls will not end them. The telephone company and police officials ask that anyone receiving such calls cooperate by reporting them at once.

'Glamor - Shoppe' Sessions Open to Beauty Candidates

MISS DALY CITY ENTRANT — Pretty Donna North, 17, a student at Westmoor High School, will be among those competing for the Miss Daly City crown next week. The beauty pageant is sponsored by the Day City-Colma Chamber of Commerce and a preliminary contest is scheduled to be held April 23 in the Elks Hall, South San Francisco, with finals slated for May 4. Deadline for entering the contest is 5 p.m. Friday, April 14. (Post Photo)

"Glamor-Shoppe," charm workshop open to all girls who enter the "Miss Daly City" Contest sponsored by the Daly City Chamber of Commerce, will be held on April 15 at Nora's House of Beauty.

Scheduled for the first time last year, under the direction of professional model, Diane Darnell, the workshop proved to be one of the most popular and rewarding experiences of the contest for the girls.

Again as last year, assisting Miss Darnell will be master hair stylist, Nora, who will discuss hair care and the use of hair pieces.

The charm workshop will be held for one day and will consist of instruction by Miss Darnell in visual poise, hints on make-up, voice and other beauty suggestions.

Diane brings to the workshop an extensive background in modeling and teaching having taught classes at leading Bay Area modeling schools.

She has a degree from San Francisco State College and has done graduate work in television and speech. She has appeared on both live and filmed television commercials and also in the movies.

Her most recent screen credit was a part in the film "Guess Who Came to Dinner," starring Spencer Tracy and Katherine Hepburn soon to be released by Columbia Pictures.

D.C. Police Make 'Roulette' Arrests

A 17-year-old Daly City youth was picked up by Daly City police Friday and was charged with attempted murder in connection with the shooting earlier this week of another youth.

Ronald Alex Tafoys of 939 Wyandette Street was arrested at 6:30 p.m. near the intersection of San Diego Avenue and Knowles Street.

Officers who had been watching the Tafoya residence, followed the suspect when he drove away in his car.

The victim in the shooting was 16-year-old John Spencer of 61 Bruno Street, who first claimed Tuesday night he had been shot in the chest from ambush as he and a friend walked across an open field.

That the youth's story was a fabrication was revealed Thursday, after Broadmoor Police Chief Ray Savage received an anonymous phone call tipping off police to the true nature of the incident.

After the facts had been further unraveled, police arrested Ronald Tafoya's 16-year-old brother, Lawrence, said to be an eye-witness to the near-fatal shooting, at the Tafoya residence, police said, not the open field near the Serra Bowling Lanes, and began a search for Ronald.

What really happened, police summarized, was this:

Spencer and a friend, Dennis Amundsen, of 476 "C" Street, Colma, entered the Tafoya home shortly before 8 p.m. Tuesday for a short visit.

As the pair walked into a basement bedroom, Ronald Tafoya allegedly was sitting on a couch, biting on the end of a 22-caliber revolver.

Noting the pair standing in the doorway, Tafoya assertedly slipped a single bullet into the gun and aimed it at Amudsen.

The chamber was empty.

Then he swung the gun toward Spencer and pulled the trigger four times, the fourth sending a slug in the upper chest of Spencer.

Accompanied by Amundsen, Spencer staggered, bleeding, to the Junipera Serra Medical series Center a few blocks away. He was given emergency treatment there by Dr. James Moorfield, then transferred to St. Francis Hospital, where the slug was successfully removed Thursday.

Spencer told police he had made up the original sniper story because he feared reprisal from the person who really shot him.

Bruno Dance Called Off By Officers

By WILL THOMAS

San Bruno police last Friday called off a scheduled dance for teen-agers and sealed off the Armory area in the face of rumors of a "rumble" between San Francisco and San Bruno youths.

Police Lt. Leo Flynn said the usual special 10-man squad used to police weekly Friday night dances was equipped with riot helmets as they closed two streets to restrict teen-age traffic in the area.

There was no action, Flynn said, probably because of the "concentration of police officers in the area."

Crestmoor

The veteran policeman explained that concerned officials of Crestmoor High School in San Bruno had alerted police to the rumble rumor.

With the co-operation of Ed Doyle, who runs the weekly dances, the authorities decided to cancel the affair.

Portions of First and Third Avenues were blocked off by police. The armory is located at the deadend of Third Avenue.

Although Flynn said the officers "didn't see a thing," there was an unconfirmed report that a carload of youngsters was stopped in Oakland, assertedly bound for the San Bruno area. Flynn said he was unable to verify the report.

He said that, supposedly, a group of San Francisco youths was to meet at the dance to "clean the plows" of a "couple" Bruno teen-agers, as a "retaliatory action." He was unable to elaborate.

The dances have been held at the armory for about nine months, Flynn pointed out. Only at the first had there been any trouble. The San Bruno police, he declared, took steps to see that no further difficulties developed, and since then no problems have come up.

Daly City Cold Boxes Turn Hot

If at first you succeed, try again, seems to have been the credo of a suspect seen yesterday allegedly stealing a refrigerator, Daly City Police theorized today.

The suspect, Patrick Mogan, 30, of 621 Larchmont Drive, Broadmoor, was booked for theft Sunay, after police said they caught him attempting to remove a refrigerator from the Louis G. Fitting home at 151 Eastmoor Avenue, Daly City.

According to witnesses, suspect had taken a freezer from Fitting only last week, police said.

Both the freezer and refrigerator were installed in a boiler room of the home.

The freezer was taken by a person using a "dolly" and truck after prying the boiler room door open, police said.

When arrested, the suspect had a pickup truck parked outside the boiler room and was attempting to cart the refrigerator away on a dolly, police said.

The freezer was recovered at the suspect's home by police shortly after his arrest.

Ryan Slates Meeting On Conservation

At the request of the vice president of the Buri Buri Homeowners' Association, Mrs. Mary Ortner, 32 Escanyo Drive, South San Francisco, Assemblyman Leo J. Ryan, D-South San Francisco, has scheduled a meeting with state officials and the Buri Buri group to discuss amending present California conservation laws.

In a letter to Assemblyman Ryan, Mrs. Ortner asked for a law to implement Proposition 3 passed by the voters of California last November. Proposition 3, now an amendment to the state constitution says: "The people hereby declare that it is in the best interest of the state to maintain, preserve, conserve and otherwise continue in existence open space lands . . . to assure the use and enjoyment of natural resources and scenic beauty for the economic and social well-being of the state and its citizens. . . ."

Assemblyman Ryan wrote Mrs. Ortner that any kind of change in the law would require the support of legislators on the proper committees as well as support from the various state department agencies involved.

The meeting is to be held in Sacramento, Friday, at 3 p.m. in the office of the State Direct of Public Works John Erreca.

Other officials who have been invited to attend the conference are Assemblyman Edwin L. Z'berg, D-Sacramento, chairman of the Natural Resources, Planning and Public Works Assembly Committee, and the committee's consultant, James Pardau; Assemblyman John F. Foran, D-San Francisco, chairman of the Transportation and Commerce Assembly Committee, and the committee's consultant, Bruce Samuel; and Jack Lindsey from the governor's office.

Westlake Bowl

By JAMES GREALISH

It's "Hail to the Champions" time at Westlake Bowl. The Greers Gremlins team won the Westlake Wedlocks Mixed Fours League which ended two weeks ago. This popular league will meet next Sunday to start the Spring-Summer League. Those interested in joining may contact Rick or Frank at 756-5777 and should be present at the meeting next Sunday at 5:00 p.m.

The ladies in the St. Emydius Belles League are still talking about Bernice Paulsen's 262 game last Tuesday morning. With a 524 series, she not only led the league but qualified for the WIBC "100 pins over average" award. Another highlight was Alice Schneider's conversion of the 2-7 and 6-7-10 splits. Other split converters were Eillen Drexler the 5-7, Bern Conway the 5-10, Ginny Regan the 5-10, Jeannette Ganem the 5-7, Carrie Futtrell the 4-10, and Connie Halsing the 4-7-10.

Sam Haar topped the B'nai B'rith League for the week with a 216 game and 563 series

In the Lucky Lager League, Marge Todd earned another patch as she converted the almost impossible 7-10 split, then in the following frame she converted the 5-10. Marge now has a WIBC "7-10" patch to add to her collection. Leading lady for the night was Ruby Choy with a 188 game and 516 series while Kelly Bertoncin led the men with 235 and 587.

In a "cliff-hanger" finish, the Westlake Stationers won the Ladies Invitational League on the final night of competition. Angie Betrozoff needed a strike on the final ball of the third game, to give her team a one-game victory and she calmly stepped to the foul line and threw a perfect pocket hit to bring victory to her team. Helen Lugo took top honors on the final night with a 208 game and 543 series.

As the new Westlake Merchants League started last Tuesday evening, Dolores Langford led the ladies with a 207 game and 487 series while Louis Perna topped the men with a 224 game and 574 series.

John Candau set a new high series mark in the Inter-Parish League last week as he posted a 656 three game total. Starting with 163, John jumped to 245 in the second game and finished with a big 248.

Our "bowlers of tomorrow" will be busy during the coming weeks earning expenses for the State Tournament in July in Sacramento. This coming weekend, they will be keeping score for the PGE Tournament here at Westlake. Saturday, April 22, they plan a car wash from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Westlake Richfield and a cake sale all day. Junior Director Marge Brown has announced that she will conduct a new instruction class at 3 p.m. Saturday April 22.

As the Westlake Knolls League came to an end, the Four Deuces team representing an Irving Street cocktail lounge took the league championship Norm Dekelaita took top honors for the week with a 227 game and 581 series.

George Sales "really returned home" last Tuesday night as he hit a big 656 series in the 850 Scratch League on games of 233-211 and 212. Other high rollers were Don Jolly 239-627, Harry Hood 216-612, Joe Nessinger 216-607 and Bill Greer 223-604.

Meetings for Spring-Summer leagues get underway next week with Monday evening ladies Starliters Handicap League starting the week. Tuesday evening finds the men's 775 Handicap and 805 Scratch Leagues holding their organizational meetings. The Westlake Majors 860 Scratch League will meet Friday at 9 p.m.

Ram Tracksters Splash to Win

A little rain never hurt anybody, especially the Westmoor High School track team.

While all of their cinder counterparts were busy scurrying around and making like fair-weather track teams, coach Bob Lualhati's Ram spikes were out in the wet cold ready for action.

Westmoor, led by Chuck Johnston, Mike Clabby and John Sirianni, splashed to an effortless 107-14 victory over Half Moon Bay on the Rams' oval last week. The win gave them a 1-0 mark in North Peninsula League competition.

Clabby, only a sophomore, won both hurdle events, including a 20.8 clocking in the 180 lows. Sirianni won the 100 in 10.4 and then came back to win the 220.

Johnston recorded the best pole vault in the North Peninsula this season and the third best one on the Peninsula to date when he soared 13-0.

In the class B meet, the Rams also prevailed, 104½-15½. Frank DiStefano was the hero, winning the 100 in a record-tying time of 10.5 and the 440 with a 55.5 effort. Kim Clark, Gil Noennick and Larry Wolff were also double winners for the Ram cinders.

In the class C meet, Bruce Pope was a triple winner in leading the baby Rams to a 95-0 whitewash of the undermanned Cougars.

Pad Mermen Beat S.S.F.

The four year unbeaten skein of the South San Francisco High School Class B swim team came to an end last week, but it took some fancy ingenuity on the part of rival Serra to do it.

The Pad class B team, augmented by three varsity performers, ended the Warriors lightweight reign, 48-38, in the Serra pool. The Pads also won the varsity meet, 78-17.

In winning the class B meet, the Serrans set six new school records. Mike Baran, Tom McBreen and Tim Brenner, freshman members of the varsity squad, took advantage of their class B exponents and slipped down to the lightweight team to instigate the upset.

JOE MOTTOLA, Daly City Lion president, presented a check for $200 to Westmoor High School wrestler Bob Morris last week. The club is sponsoring Morris' trip to the National AAU wrestling matches next month at Lincoln, Neb. Looking on as Mottola made the presentation, left to right, were Anthony Giammona, Melford Battye, Ed Tomasello and Gordon Cartwright.

Our Gang Leads Rec Volleyball

Our Gang, the Lame ducks, Guppies and the Warriors registered wins in the seventh week of the current Daly City Recreation Department Adult Co-Ed Volleyball League competition.

Ray Letsinger, Sharon Corso and Ginny Anderson led the Our Gang Club to decisive 15-2 and 15-4 wins over the Rascals. The loss dropped Bill Murphy and his Rascals into a two-way tie for third place.

The Lame Ducks moved back into second place when they defeated the Stinkers in two straight 15-1 and 15-4. Playing a strong game for the winners were Ed Malcarne, Tony Rogue, Joe Cortese and Valerie Galdikas.

Win number three was chalked up by the Guppies when they took two out of three from the Swanx. Bill Zimmerman and his crew won the opener 15-4, lost the middle game by a 15-7 margin but came back to take a close 15-12 victory in the final encounter.

A strong Warrior team took two in a row from the Cripplers with scores of 15-1 and 15-10.

Tigers Upset S.S.F.

NPL Play Begins With Major Upsets

The North Peninsula League baseball season barely got under way last week and already there was an upset.

South San Francisco High School, favored to win the NPL title from its pre-season record, had its conference debut ruined by Terra Nova in a well-played ball game at the Tigers' field.

Terra Nova, tying it up in the bottom of the seventh, scored another in the bottom of the eighth to edge the Warriors, 3-2. The upset victory thus established the Tigers as an authentic threat to the NPL crown.

In other league action, El Camino blanked rusty Westmoor, 3-0, and Jefferson hammered out a 10-0 decision over hapless Half Moon Bay. Oceana drew a bye in the opening round of play.

In the South SF-Terra Nova contest, both pitchers went the distance and turned in excellent jobs. Ray Bracco was credited with the win. He gave the Warriors only five hits while striking out eight.

Terra Nova got its winning run when Mike Busky beat out an infield single, took second on Jim Bresnahan's sacrifice and came home on Jim Sukowsky's single to end the ball game in the extra inning thriller.

Earlier in the seventh, the Tigers erased a 2-1 Warrior lead and tied it up when Clancy Smith reached first on an infield error, went to second on a sacrifice bunt and then scored on another error.

The Warriors got one run in the top of the sixth when Tom Olmo squeezed home Ron Beall on a bunt after the former had tripled and another in the seventh to go ahead, 2-1, when Vince Olson singled home Lou Lodgiani.

In El Camino's victory, pitcher John Coulter set the Rams down on four hits while striking out two and only walking two.

The Colts jumped on Westmoor for two quick runs in the top of the first inning. Dan Tyler had opened the inning with a walk. After one was down, John Castellanos tripled to bring home Tyler and Steve Jones followed with a single which knocked in Castellanos.

The Colts got an insurance run in the top of the fourth when Bob Brusco singled, took second on a past ball, stole third and scored on another single by Jones.

Westmoor performed three double plays and got excellent relief pitching from Steve Bach.

In the Jeff-Half Moon Bay game, Russ Runge of the Indians proved devastating with a double, triple and home run in three times at bat. His three-run homer in the four-run fourth was his big blast. Mike Macia also homered for the winners.

Coach steve Mezzera also praised Barry Perrone and Ken Reitz for their defensive efforts.

Sophomore hurler Bill Fischer set the Cougars down on just two hits, while striking out nine.

Serra Bows to Riordan

It's back to the drawing board for the Serra High School Padres.

The Pad baseballers, one of the pre-season picks in the tough Catholic Athletic League, bobbled away a 9-6 loss to Riordan High School at Fitzgerald Field last week. The defeat evened Serra's CAL mark at 1-1, while Riordan also balanced its mark with a 1-1 record.

The Serrans committed five errors and had trouble taming the prolific bat of Riordan's Bob Bianchi. Bianchi drove in two runs in the top of the first with a double and knocked another pair home in the fifth with a single. Larry Moore drove in three runs for the winners as the duo accounted for seven of Riordan's nine runs.

The Crusaders had a 5-0 lead before Serra got on the board with a single tally in the bottom of the fourth. The visitors then exploded for four more runs in the top of the fifth to pull out to a 9-1 lead.

Serra countered with four runs of its own in the Pads' half of the fifth when Larry Mongillo knocked in Paul Wilson, Dennis Ward and Dan Hile with a bases-loaded double. Chuck Stancil drove in the other two Serra runs with singles in the fourth and seventh.

How to Whip the Height Problem in Basketball

Le Pacini

Okay: Ready for our whacky theory of the week? This one's concerning the height problem in basketball. The proposed solution is based on the old baseball maxim, "When in doubt, move the fences in."

As you all know, one of the pet theories for neutralizing the big man is making the baskets higher. As we pointed out last column, that would only further penalize the little guys. But, proponents of higher baskets say, the basket is the same height as when Naismith invented the game, but man has grown several inches in the ensuing generations.

It would be only logical, therefore, to put the baskets higher. And at the symbolic level, we'd be demonstrating to Congress and its anti-trust division our willingness to conform to society.

WHAT basketball people don't realize, however, is that few big problems are ever solved by taking the most logical course.

Take baseball, for instance. Since it started a century ago, men have become bigger and stronger, bats and balls livelier. So what has baseball done to solve the problem? They've MOVED THE FENCES IN. What has been achieved by this deft yet simple move is wonderfully wise.

Big guys will hit the ball over virtually any fence if they get hold of the ball. So bringing fences in have never appreciably added to their home-run totals. What has happened, though, is that management has brought the home-run potential to the little guy.

Fans like home-runs, and now they know that any guy in the lineup — not just a Ruth or Mays — is capable of whacking one over the wall.

Now, do you get the correlation? Fans like to see points scored. Many of them even LIKE the dunkers. Move the baskets up, the big men will still dunk them. LOWER them, and the little guy will have a chance — without the big guy's total being appreciatively added to.

★ ★ ★

WE realize the monetary reasons for the NBA play-offs, but we still think they're too drawn out. A sequence of three, five and seven would make more sense and be more exciting than the current five, five and seven.

★ ★ ★

TERRA NOVA'S faculty basketball team continues to be a jinx to the KYA Oneders, that transient group of basketball-playing radio disc jockeys. Last week they ended the 20-game Oneder winning skein with a smashing 104-97 victory. Last year it was the same old Tigers who handed the newly formed Oneders their first defeat after something like 20-25 straight wins.

Again, the difference was probably Don Delbon, the TN basketball coach who regularly plays for the Oneders (and averages better than 30 points a game) but who once again changed sides for this contest.

He dropped in 28 markers. Surprisingly, though, he wasn't Terra Nova's high scorer, the first time that's happened since Delbon's been playing various games for the faculty team. He was outscored by newcomer Bill Brookfield, who potted 30. Brookfield's a football coach. There must be a message there somewhere.

The game, incidentally, was played straight Hardly any fooling around. Both teams wanted to win in what may be developing into a regular rivalry.

★ ★ ★

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO'S Ron Beall, co-Most Valuable NPL player and among Northern California's top scorers this past basketball season (202 average), last week was given an Honorable Mention on a San Francisco daily's All-Central Coast team. Terra Nova's Jim Bresnahan, who averaged 19.5 for all games, led the NPL in scoring with a 20-point-per-game average, and was the guy who tied Beall as the NPL's Most Valuable, wasn't mentioned.

★ ★ ★

AS WE wrote last year, the reason why we can't seem to form an alegiance to the California Seals — even though we like the game of hockey itself — is the screwy player switching that takes place. Just when you're building up a rooting interest for one player, he's gone, your enemy perhaps the very next night.

Another unstable practice we'll never be able to reconcile is the one in which the league will hire a goalie to stand by in case EITHER goalie of two goalie-deprived teams competing in play-off competition should become incapacitated.

How can the back-up goalie possibly feel any real loyalty or responsibility toward either team? It's tantamount to Commissioner Eckert hiring, say, Ed Bailey, to work for either the Giants or the Yankees in the World Series should either Tom Haller or Elston Howard get injured.

ATTITUDES never really change, do they? We had to chuckle at a Rocky Marciano line recently. "I'm proud to have belonged to the Golden Era of Boxing (1948-56), when there was a good fight at least every week. — hope there is one person who will turn boxing back into a sport we can be proud of."

And we can remember Max Baer and Barney Ross and Jimmy McLarnin and Mickey Walker, et al., saying the same thing in the late '40's and '50's, only according to them, the golden era was in the '20's and '30's.

Weren't the late '40's and '50's the years of the great tank job exposes, and the menance of television, which supposedly over-exposed the sport right out of business?

★ ★ ★

WE'VE always been the first to admit that the Giants lacked a really first class double play combo last year, but we think this flap over the importance of total double plays has been overplayed. Sure Pittsburgh and the Mets had more DP's than the Giants last year. But then neither had a pitching staff which could match San Francisco's. After all, experts, you can make a lot of double plays unless there are a lot of men on base.

The truest and fairest way to measure team DP efficiency would be to figure it proportionately in relation to the number of men having been allowed to reach the bases.

Duds Favorites In DC Rec Play

The Daly City Recreation Department's Three-Man Hunch Basketball League completed eighth week action with victories going to the Duds, J. C. Penney's of Westlake, Playboys and OLM No. 2.

The Duds picked up win number eight when they defeated the Wildcats 40-17.

Gary Ryan paced the victors with twenty points while teammate Mike Kennedy hit for fifteen.

With just one game remaining the Duds have practically cinched the round robin championship and are a strong favorite to take all the marbles in the play-offs, which begin on April 18.

J. C. Penney's of Westlake took the measure of OLM No. 1 40-29. Gary Pederson was the big gun for Penney's with twenty-three markers.

The win moved Penney's into a tie with the Wildcats for fourth place.

The Daly City Playboys edged the Golden gators in overtime 45-41 to nail down the second-place position. Roy Reitz was high for the winners with twenty-five digits. Ed Larios paced the losers with 20.

Larios finished the nine-game schedule with a total of 223 points to walk away with the league scoring crown.

Final action of the night saw OLM No. 2 defeat the Sorry Bout That Club 40-28.

Gabe Adami led the OLM No. 2 attack with 16 points. Art Iambro and Jim Karson contributed 12 each in the winning cause.

Meanwhile, the Daly City Recreation Department sponsored High School Hunch Basketball League came to a close last week with wins being chalked up by the Saints, Cartwrights, Marchbank Park and Cinquapations.

A 33-29 win went to the Saints over the Playboys. Joe Skaar led the Saint attack with 18.

The Saints won the round robin schedule with a seven won-none lost record and are a slight favorite to take the play-offs on April 12.

Finishing second with a 6-1 slate were the Cartwrights. The "hoss men" with league scoring leader Mike Mjechovich and Tom Sellers figure to make things rough for the Saints in play-off competition.

Third place went to Marchbank Park.

Sharp shooting Phil Randolph and rebounding aces J .D. Smith and Eddie Smith are a good ball club and have a fine chance in the play-offs.

The Cinquapations nailed down the fourth spot by virtue of a 30-26 win over the Moonshiners. Dan Ayala and Henry Michon led the offensive for the Cinquapations.

Mustangs Down Mills

Rain Doesn't Slow Mustangs

The Mid-Peninsula League baseball season picked a poor day to open, but that didn't sop Capuchino and Mills from competing in a game which will be hard to top in any kind of weather.

Braving the elements and the Mustangs ran away with a 1-0 victory over Mills in a near flawless game despite the wet field. Neither team committed an error, which was even more amazing.

A double by Mike Costanzo in the bottom of the third inning tallied Mike Chiappari all the way from first base for the only run of the game.

After two men were down, Chiappari gained life for the Mustangs with a single. Costanzo then brought him around with the winning run.

Both pitchers pitched excellent ball, with Cap's Roger Carmine allowing the Vikings only two hits. Mills' Jim Wallen only yielded six hits.

Carmine, who traveled the distance as did Wallen, struck out ten batters en route to the victory.

The win gave Cap a 1-0 record and undisputed possession of first place. The two other games in the MPL were canceled because of wet grounds.

The Mustangs may have received spiritual incentive toward their impressive victory from the presence of Don Laclergue, Cap's much-respected baseball coach of last year who is currently recovering from a serious illness.

Laclergue, who recently was released from Peninsula Hospital, watched the Mustangs yesterday from his car, which was fittingly parked right behind the Capuchino bench.

THE DONALD ANDREACCHIS (Carol Ann Bernardini)

Carol Ann Bernardini, Don Andreacchis Wed

The Holy Angels Catholic Church in South San Francisco was the setting for Sunday's wedding of Carol Ann Bernardini and Donald Andreacchi, son of Mrs. Betty Andreachhi of South San Francisco and the late Nicholas Andreacchi.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bernardini of Colma, was given in marriage by her father. She wore an ivory peau-de-soie gown trimmed with re-embroidered Alencon lace and styled with an Empire waistline and scalloped neckline. An organza and lace cluster held her illusion veil and stephanotis, orchids and roses made up her bouquet.

Attending Carol as maid of honor was Karen Scopazi, who wore an Empire gown of yellow chiffon and flower braid trim. Similarly attired bridesmaids were Linda Nofziger, Linda Andreachhi and Marry Cefalu. They all carried tangerine-colored carnations.

Alice Utterback was the flowergirl.

Rick Edwards completed the duties of best man and Gary Bernardini, Gary Andreachhi and Terry Andreachhi seated the guest.

After a reception at the Sons of Italy ballroom, the newlyweds left on a wedding trip to Carmel. They will make their first home in Colma.

DENTAL HEALTH FACTS

Small cavities in the teeth can be filled more easily and with less discomfort than large ones.

If decay is neglected it leads to infection and abscess formation. An infected tooth is a hazard to good health and often must be removed.

A tooth that has been lost should be replaced by an artificial one. If it is not, the other teeth will shift. This shifting may lead to more decay and to diseases of the gums.

Irregular placement of the teeth should be corrected for many reasons: To improve appearance, speech and the ability to chew food and to help prevent other dental diseases.

Regular dental treatment will help you to have teeth that are both healthy and attractive.

Have your dentist check for cavities and follow his recommendations if treatment is needed.

Dr. Campbell limits his practice to the making of dental plates, partial plates, removable bridges and extractions for some; however, he recommends that you see your dentist at least twice a year in order to help prolong the use of your natural teeth as even the beautiful modern dentures are not as efficient as healthy, natural teeth.

Business Club Is Chartered

After Glenn South, principal of Westmoor, made the opening remarks, Gary Thompson, sponsor of the Terra Nova Chapter, spoke to the audience on the meaning of FBLA.

In his speech, Thompson said the purpose and meaning of the club is to "develop competent, aggressive business leadership ... encourage improvement in scholarship and promote school olyalty ... encourage members in the development of individual projects and in establishing themselves in business ... encourage members to improve the home and community."

During the ceremony in the Westmoor cafeteria, Nancy Granucci, president of the Westmoor chapter, took her membership oath.

The installing official, Mary Ann Walsh, and her assistants from Terra Nova, then installed the six officers and 14 charter members.

Founded in September of last year, Westmoor's chapter of FBLA has participated in many activities, including the leukemia fund drive sponsored by KYA. They have also sold chocolate candy bars, among numerous other projects.

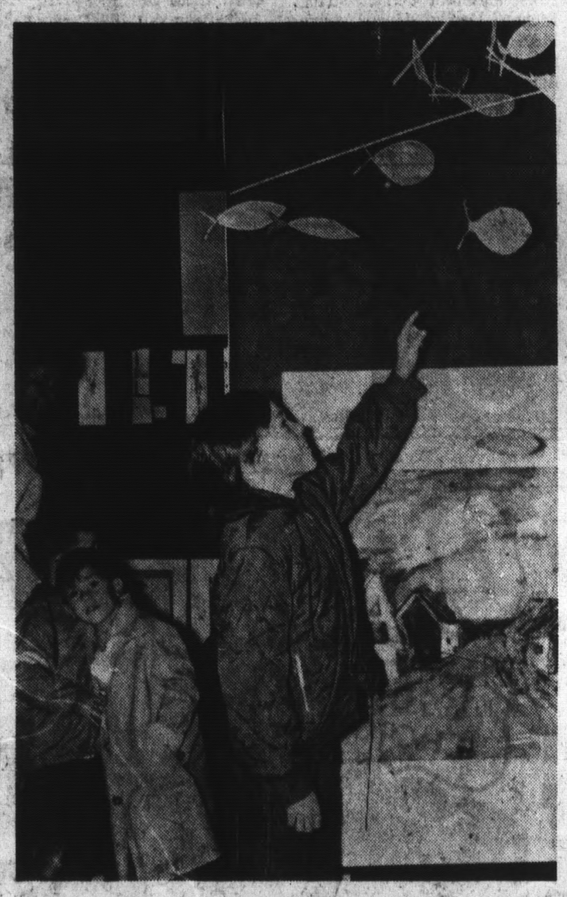
Work of Daly City Students Displayed

Bi-annual Lions Club Art Exhibit

LITTLE KAREN WEAVER, backdropped by a mixture of drawings, paintings, sculptures, ceramics and varied artifacts at bi-annual Youth Art Exhibit, sees what a pile of scrap metal and other odds-and-ends, can do for a youngster with imagination. Karen is an M. Pauline Brown School third grader. Mrs. Helen Corden, JESD art director, described this year's show as "the best ever."

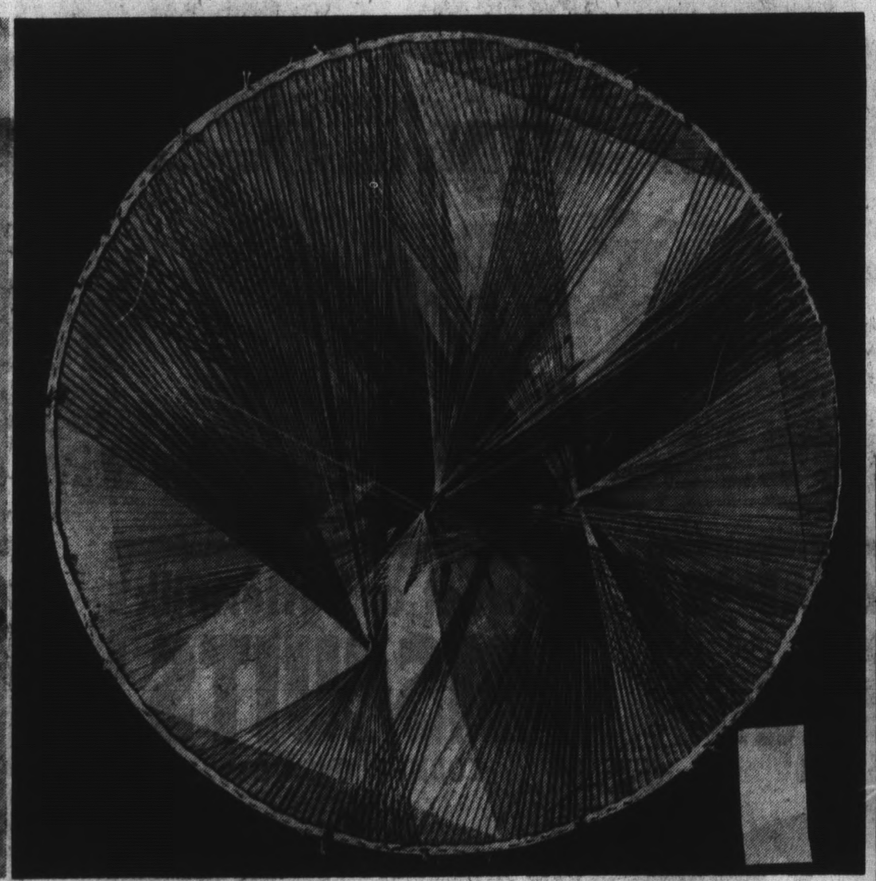


THERE WAS a variety of arty objects to be studied by the pupils at the Daly-City Lions Club Youth Art Exhibit at the Daly City War Memorial Building on Mission Street. Among the eye-catchers was this mobile being examined by John Schubin, Thomas Edison School third grader.

ROW AFTER ROW of handcraft, water colors, mosaics and other samples of classroom achievement filled the large gymnasium of the War Memorial Building.

THE ART DISPLAY attracted hundreds of pupils throughout the community to see the hundreds of student "masterpieces." Like this class they were bused to the display. These youngsters and their teacher, from Thomas Edison School, make their way up the ramp at War Memorial Building.

CERAMIC SKILLS of the elementary age youngsters were effectively displayed in this planter-box-type container at the Lions Club-sponsored event.



LENS-CATCHING was this circle of multi-colored yarn, prepared by Cindy Barringer. Free show closed Monday. In addition to the elementary school entries, works of Westmoor and Jefferson High students were exhibited.

A TRIP to a local dump by the fifth grade class of Fernando Rivera School provided materials for this near-life-size junk-sculpture. In background is student painting project.

MRS. ROSALIE YERBY, traveling art teacher for the Jefferson Elementary School District, admires some of the art subjects submitted by pupils from schools she visits. Public, private and parochial schools were invited to participate.

NATURALLY, some of the youngsters had questions about the entries exhibited at the show. Above, Mrs. Judy Hansen, a first-grade teacher at M. Pauline Brown School, explains to a group of her charges one of the displays.

Terra Nova Topics

By MARIA MONTENEGRO

Quarter exams dominate the Terra Nova campus this week with language, science, business, and homemaking exams yesterday, social science, art, and industrial arts exams today, and English, math and music exams to follow tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

A RECOMMENDED remedies for "exam fatigue" are the fun, food, games, prizes, and excitement to be offered at this Saturday's "Spring Fling" Carnival at Terra Nova from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Sponsored by the TN P-TA with the aid of the student Executive Board, the Carnival was scheduled to be held last Saturday but was delayed so as not to conflict with other activities being held around the community on that day.

"Spring Fling" proceeds will finance schloarships for this year's graduation seniors and the annual P-TA-sponsored Senior All-Night Party.

A featured prize which only seniors can compete for is a trip to Disneyland. Non-seniors are guaranteed just as much fun.

Hobby, Science Show Planned By P-TA Unit

The Christopher Columbus P-TA is sponsoring a Science and Hobby Show next Tuesday in the multi-use room.

Each child in the school has been invited to enter an original story or poems; a science hobby; a collection; crafts; writings or art. The children are especially encouraged to enter scientific projects engineered and developed by themselves — crystallization of minerals, growth of bacteria or tide-pool display.

Prize ribbons in several divisions and classifications will be awarded by the judges, who will be community leaders.

The exhibits will be on display at the P-TA meeting April 18, at 7:30 p.m., in the multi-use room. The public is invited.

Awards Given Cub Scouts Of Pack 182

Cyclist, Wife Hurt In Coastside Crash

A young San Bruno Marine and his wife were hurt Saturday when their motorcycle ran into a sheriff's patrol car, which was transporting the victim of another traffic accident.

The Marine, Richard R. Futrell Jr., 22, of 780 Fifth Avenue, told Highway Patrolman Richard Jacobsen that he was driving his motorcycle westbound on Sharp Park Road near Pacifica, with his wife, Mary, 22, riding tandem, when the car ahead of him slowed suddenly. Unable to stop in time, Futrell tried to pass the car, but the sheriff's car was approaching from the opposite direction.

Both the motorcycle and the patrol car, driven by Joseph Guillory, 25, of South San Francisco, a reserve deputy, swerved, but the motorcycle hit the left rear of the car.

Futrell and his wife were taken to Mary's Help Hospital for treatment of fractures and cuts of their left legs and feet.

In the sheriff's car at the time was Kevin Roper, 20, who had been in an accident and was being taken to the nearby Nike base by Guillory and his partner, George Feist, of Pacifica, another reserve sheriff's deputy.

Youth Held In Attack On Officer

A 17-year-old Pacifica youth was arrested for allegedly striking Pacifica patrolman Donald Joice in an apparent attempt to keep the officer from questioning a younger brother.

The youth was placed in his father's custody pending further investigation.

Authorities said the alleged assault occurred at the Linda Mar Shopping Center at 6:30 p.m. yesterday, while Joice was serving on special duty at the West Coast Shows carnival there.

The patrolman had stopped a 13-year-old youth, who he suspected of selling illegal carnival tickets at a price less than those being sold by West Coast Shows.

Joice said, in his report, that the youngster's older brother tried to stop him from taking the younger boy to the carnival office for questioning.

The policeman and witnesses said the 17-year-old boy swung at Joice three times, after also assertedly pushing him.

When Joice pulled out his flat night stick, the youth allegedly grabbed his arm and knocked the "slapper" out of the officer's grasp.

A witness handed the "flattie" back to the policeman, who struck the strapping youngster with it.

The two scuffled on the ground for a while before Joice subdued and handcuffed the 5-foot-10-inch 152-pound youth.

The youth first claimed he had not pushed the officer though he admitted swinging at him, the report stated. The teen-ager also charged the officer hit him in the mouth inside the office while his hands were still cuffed. There was no evidence to substantiate this, the report said.

Two Swedish Students In Coast Visit

Two students from Sweden, touring the United States with a group of 80 ambassadors of the Experiment in International Living, are staying with the Seymour Cain family, 355 Beaumont, Pacifica, until April 13.

The Pacifica visitors — Rune Nilsson of Trongsund, Sweden, and Karl-David Sundberg of Lulea, Lappland — are graduate students at the Royal Institute of Technology in Stockholm.

Home stays with families in the Bay area have been arranged for the entire group by the International Hospitality Center of San Francisco.

Oceana graduate Valerie St. Jean was an Experiment in International Living ambassador in the summer of 1964.

Mrs. Fred Dowsett has information on how Pacifica high school and college students may apply for this program.

$110 Theft From School

Theft of $110 from a desk drawer in the Pacifica Play School was reported to police Wednesday.

Shirley A. Wheeler said the cash and some checks received in tuition fees were taken some time between 6 p.m. April 4 and 7 a.m. the next day.

Girl Thrown From Horse

A 15-year-old Daly City girl suffered back injuries last week when the horse she was riding along Thornton Beach threw her to the ground.

Kathy Lee Russell, of 30 Poncetta Drive, told investigators she was unable to move after the fall and lay in shallow water for almost two hours before a passerby spotted her.

Emergency units responded to the scene and rushed Kathy to Mary's Help Hospital.

FUTURE CLUB SITE—Groundbreaking ceremonies were expected to be held soon for the $90,000 Pacifica Boys' Club, with the foundation scheduled to be poured on June 10, president Ken Strom announced recently. The three-and-a-half-acre site was donated to the club by Challenge Developments, Inc., and a $5,000 donation from Bing Crosby has paved the way for construction of the facility in the growing Park Pacifica area. Garbage Battle Victory For Brisbane in Court

The city of Brisbane has won its long fight against garbage dumping in the Bay.

Superior Judge Harold Underwood of Trinity County ruled that the Sanitary Fill Company, which handles virtually all of San Francisco's garbage and refuse, cannot continue to use the big Bay dump at Sierra Point.

The decision, unless the scavengers are allowed to continue dumping while the decision is being appealed, means that San Francisco will have to find another way of getting rid of the tons of garbage and refuse it produces daily.

"This is a great victory for the people of Brisbane," said Caspar Weinberger, special counsel for the city. "It is a determination that they are able to control their own affairs and have the kind of city they wish."

Hamilton Budge, attorney for Sanitary Fill, said an appeal is likely. He was asked if the company has some alternate plan for disposal.

"No, they don't," he replied. "Not that I know of."

City Laws Valid

Weinberger, while emphasizing that he had not seen Judge Underwood's decisio said the key element of it was the judge's ruling that two anti-dumpin gordinances passed by Brisbane "are valid and enforceable legislative enactments." Judge Underwood ordered that an injunction against continued use of the site for garbage dumping be issued, as requested by the city.

In the decision, the judge held that the dump is a "public nuisance."

He stated that the 107-acre site has gained in value since the time it was diked off to the extent that its sale or use for another "lawful" purpose would more than recover what has been spent on its development.

Judge Underwood noted that the dikes were constructed prior to the McAteer Act's ban on bay filling and that, therefore, the site can be used or any lawful purpose, but not as a garbage dump.

Weinberger said in preparing the injunction he will ask that Sanitary Fill not be allowed to continue to dump garbage there while the appeal is pending.

Sustains Council

"The decision," Weinberger said, "sustains every argument that was made. It simply underlines the basically correct course the city has taken since it determined that it did not want garbage dumping in its front yard."

Concerning what alternative plans might be put into effect for the disposal of San Francisco's waste, Weinberger said:

"I simply cannot believe that the city of San Francisco is not prepared with such plans. If they don't have a plan, knowing that the possibility of this decision has existed for a year and a half — I cannot believe that any city could be that incompetent."

Bond

The attorney noted that Sanitary Fill was required to post a $50,000 bond to guarantee the removal of the garbage that has been dumped there in the event the ruling was in favor of the city.

Sanitary Fill originally signed a contract with the Brisbane city council for use of the site. An initiative ordinance against the dump was passed by the citizenry by an overwhelming majority, however, and the city council followed up by enacting still another ordinance outlawnig the dump.

Coast Fire Burns Roof

Fire, that apparently crept up a jacket that caught fire as a result of a faulty water heater vent, damaged the roof of a home at 282 Roana in Pacifica and miscellaneous contents of the attic Sunday.

Pacifica firemen said 17-year-old Michael Needham had gone to the attic above a room converted from an attached garage, to get some article stored there.

In the process, firemen said, he apparently knocked a portion of the jacket onto the uncovered water heater vent. After the fire started it apparently ignited the rest of the clothing, spreading to boxes in the attic loft.

S.S.F. Man Is Hurt in Crash

A South San Francisco man was hurt last Tuesday afternoon in a three-car collision at the intersection of Westborough Boulevard and Gallaway Place.

Milton I. Smith, a passenger in a car drven by Mrs. Loretta Mae Smith, is listed in satisfactory condition with head injuries at Kaiser Hospital in San Francisco.

Police said the three cars collided at the intersection about 5 p.m.

Drivers of the other two vechicles involved were L. E. Gray of South San Francisco and Edgar Arthur Swinger of San Bruno.

Stereo Set And Bedding Taken

A stereo set, ladies' wristwatch, clothing and bedding valued at some $160 was stolen from the Joyce Ruffer home at 170 Third Avenue Saturday, Daly City police report.

Accused Slayer of D.C. Policeman Re-committed

Andreas Sedeno, accused of murdering a Daly City policeman, was ordered recommitted to Atascadero State Hospital last week after battling sheriff's deputies and having to be literally dragged from his county jail cell to appear in Superior Court.

Sedeno was returned to the state hospital last week. He had been returned from Atascadero in February after a six-month stay there, certified as being able to cooperate in his defense on a charge of the murder of Policeman Richard Klass, 25.

Klass was shot with his own gun, May 5, during a struggle with Sedeno, who had been arrested on a charge of indecent exposure, and escaped from the Daly City police station, running down a street where Klass caught up with him. Klass died during exploratory surgery June 9.

Sheriff's deputies said that Sedeno refused to come out of his jail cell yesterday afternoon for a court appearance on motion of his court-appointed attorney, Dennis Woodman, for reexamination of the defendant's mental state.

Woodman contended that Sedeno was not cooperating with him and had stated that he was "not interested in a trial."

Sedeno assaulted Deputy Richard Planting when the latter attempted to get him to leave the cell. Other officers went to Planting's assistance, and Deputy Michael Dow was kicked in the groin by the defendant.

Sedeno appeared calm after he was brought into court in handcuffs and shackles. His denim shirt had a large rip which occurred during the struggle. The cuffs and shackles were removed in court, but three deputies stood close to the defendant throughout the proceedings before Superior Judge Frank Rose.

Judge Rose asked Sedeno if he wanted to return to the hospital.

"No thanks," the prisoner replied.

The judge stated that on the basis of reports by psychiatrists who have examined Sedeno since his return from Atascadero, it appared that the defendant is suffering from schizophrenia.

Criminal proceedings were again ordered suspended, and the court directed that Sedeno, 33, who had been scheduled to go to trial on Monday, be returned to Atascadero.

Open-Face Super Sandwiches From Left Over Meat Loaf

One of the best uses for left-over meat loaf is for sandwiches . . . over 40 per cent of meat loaf is used this way. Busy homemakers frequently plan lunch box menus around left-over meat loaf.

Now make meat loaf in just 4 minutes with new convenient Meat Loaf Mix. The mix gives you delicious, moist, juicy meat loaf in just 64 minutes.

Don't limit meat loaf sandwiches to school lunches. Serve Open-Face Super Sandwiches anytime. They're super-good.

CONTADINA OPEN-FACE SUPER SANDWICHES
(Makes 6 sandwiches)

¾ cup (1 average sized) pared, mashed ripe avocado
1 teaspoon instant minced onion
1 teaspoon lemon juice
½ teaspoon seasoned salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
3 French rolls
Salad dressing or mayonnaise
12 thin slices left-over Meat Loaf
1⅔ cups (14½-ounce can) drained Sliced Baby Tomatoes.
3 slices, sliced process American cheese
6 slices cooked bacon

Combine avocado, instant minced onion, lemon juice, seasoned salt and pepper. Mix thoroughly. Cut rolls in half and toast under broiler. Spread each half with salad dressing or mayonnaise. Place 2 slices meat loaf on each half. Spread each with about 2 tablespoons avocado mixture. Place about 3 slices tomato on top of each sandwich. Cut cheese slices in half. Top each sandwich with half cheese slice. Place under broiler until cheese is melted. Garnish each sandwich with bacon slice. Serve at once.

*Sliced fresh tomatoes may be used instead.

MEAT LOAF STUFFED SQUASH
(Makes 6 servings)

½ large (about 3 pounds) Banana or Hubbard squash
1 pound ground chuck
1 pound mild, bulk pork sausage
1 package Meat Loaf Mix
2 eggs
⅔ cup water
Parsley

Cut thin slice from underside of squash to give firm base. Scoop out all seeds and pith. Mix chuck, pork sausage, Meat Loaf Mix, eggs and water lightly but thoroughly. Fill squash and set in a shallow baking dish. Pour ¼ inch hot water around base. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 1¼ to 1½ hours or until squash is tender and meat done. Garnish with springs of parsley.

Collapsing Meringues

Meringues collapse from weakness. Sugar strengthens the egg white bubbles containing the whipped-in air. If sugar is added early, whipping time is increased, permitting a fine-bubbled, stable foam to form, with less chance of overbeating. Whipped alone, egg whites tend to overbeat quickly. Bubbles break. Liquid drains. And like Humpty Dumpty, once fallen the egg liquid will not rewhip into bubbles.

Creamy Ham Sauce On Cornbread

You can make it ham or rye with plenty of mustard if you want a sandwich cold, but if you like one that's warm make it ham in creamy mushroom sauce on cornbread squares!

With ham so popular in sandwiches, wise homemakers usually purchase a half or whole ham in a size larger than for the group expected for dinner.

With this amount of ham, it's easy to obtain leftover slices for sandwiches to be served, either hot or cold, at the first meal after the main dinner. After the slices, there remain pieces to use in casseroles or creamed dishes. Should it be a bone-in type of ham, this could be used for soup with green or yellow split peas. All in all, ham can come to several meals, each time in a different guise.

Cornbread is a quick and easy recipe to make for a sandwich with milk and beaten egg added to dry ingredients along with lard to make it tender. The batter should not be overmixed.

Southern Ham Sandwich

8 slices cooked ham, warmed
1 can (10½ ounces) condensed mushroom soup
¼ cup milk
⅛ teaspoon onion juice
¾ cup cooked peas
8 cornbread squares

Combine condensed mushroom soup, milk and onion juice. Add cooked peas and heat throughly. Top each cornbread square with a slice of ham. Spoon mushroom soup mixture over ham allowing about a quarter-cup for each sandwich. Eight servings.

Cornbread

1 egg
1⅛ cups milk
¼ cup sifted flour
1¼ cups cornmeal
2 tablespoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons lard, melted

Beat egg until thick and lemon colored. Add milk, dry ingredients and lard. Beat until smooth. Pour into greased 8 x 8-inch pan. Bake in a hot oven (400 degrees) 25 to 30 minutes. Cut cornbread into 4 x 4-inch pieces. Remove from pan and split each piece in half making eight cornbread squares.

QUICK SUPPER

Here's a quickie main dish when you've had a busy day: using instant rice, make a ring mold by letting the cooked rice sit in an oiled mold while you heat canned chili to serve in the center.

Take advantage of the new recipes and different ideas printed on the meat loaf mix packet.

CURRIED MEAT BALLS
(Makes 6 servings)

1 package Meat Loaf Mix
1 pound ground chuck
½ pound ground pork
1 egg
1-3 cup water
2½ teaspoons curry powder
2 tablespoons cooking oil
1 cup chopped onion
1 minced clove garlic
3½ cups (1 pound 12-pounce can) Solid Pack Tomatoes
1-3 cup raisins
¼ teaspoon ground cloves
½ teaspoon salt

Saute onion, garlic and the remaining 1½ teaspoons curry powder for 5 minutes. Stir in tomatoes, breaking up with a fork. Add raisins, cloves, salt and browned meat balls. Cover and simmer 20 minutes, stirring occasionally. Serve over fluffy white rice.

Many Kinds Of Butter On Market

Californians like butter as evidenced by their annual consumption of same, but consumers are sometimes confused as to grades and kinds available; so here are the ABC's of California butter.

Butter is the concentrated fat of milk, endowed by nature — and the cow — with a flavor yet to be duplicated, with abundance of vitamin A, and with the creamy natural yellow of milk's fat.

Grades of Butter — In California, thanks to the cooperation of all the dairy people and our state regulations we have only two major grades of butter. They are "First Quality" which means a scoring of not less than 92 and "Second Quality" which indicates a scoring of between 90 and 92. Many butter makers pride themselves on exceeding the required scores.

Salted Creamery Butter—Is made from soured, pateruized cream with salt added. This standard butter keeps many months at low temperatures or when frozen.

Sweet Cream and Sweet Butter—These two types of butter are often confused. Sweet cream butter is made from sweet pasteurized cream with salt added. Sweet butter is made from sweet cream but is unsalted. It is very delicate and best kept no more than seven to ten days in the refrigerator.

Whipped Butter — This is made of standard butter whipped with added cream and milk solids. It spreads easily and is ideal for service with hot breads. Note! It cannot be substituted for regular butter in recipes.

Tomato Pieces Lend Color, Flavor to Loaf

A meat loaf that's distinctly different from what you've had before is made zesty with horseradish and colorful with tomatoes and green pepper.

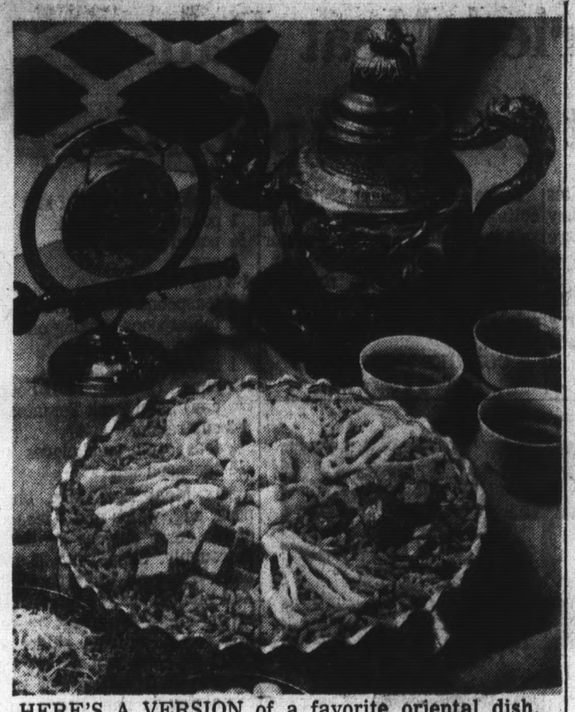
Beef and Tomato Loaf, made with two pounds of ground beef, makes eight servings. Soft bread crumbs, with milk poured over them, start the easy preparation procedure for this generous-sized loaf.

When only five or six servings are required for dinner, the remainder may be used for sandwiches. Since horseradish is in the loaf itself, make sandwiches with lettuce and mayonnaise, with mustard, if desired.

Beef and Tomato Loaf

2 pounds ground beef
1-3 cup milk
1½ cups soft bread crumbs
1 medium onion, chopped
¼ cup chopped green pepper
2 teasoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon prepared horseradish
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
2 eggs, beaten
3 firm medium-size tomatoes, cut in 1-inch pieces

Pour milk over bread crumbs. Add ground beef, onion, green pepper, salt, pepper, horseradish, Worcestershire sauce and eggs. Mix thoroughly, add tomato pieces and mix lightly. Pack in a 9 x 5-inch loaf pan. Bake in a slow oven (300 degrees F.) for 1½ to 1¾ hours. Eight servings.



HERE'S A VERSION of a favorite oriental dish, admirably suited for American tastes. Cook the rice in "brisk" tea to give it specially delicious flavor. Garnish with thin strips of omelet and accompany with salted peanuts, toasted coconut — and plenty of hot "brisk" tea.

Sound the Gong For Oriental Dish

Recently, a reader described a particular dish as a "bell ringer." Actually, the connection between food and bells goes back to ancient Far Eastern legends: various shaped bells were used to proclaim the excellence of food as well as its variety.

For example, in India, "Chai Garam" bells told of travellers drinking hot tea under the blazing sun; "Sweetmeat" bells decorated street stands and helped the vendor sell his wares; "Curry House" bells adorned spice houses.

Here's a "bell ringer" adapted from a highly popular oriental one. It's fast and easy to make — uses ham, beef and cooked shrimp (leftovers if you have them) and is unusually delicious. The seasoning trick that makes it so good is: cook the rice in tea. "Brisk" tea adds an extra "something" to to the taste — full-bodied flavor — that cooking in plain water won't do.

Garnish the rice mixture with thin strips of omelet and accompany it with salted peanuts and toasted coconut for a touch that's authentically oriental yet not too bizarre for American tastes.

Tea is the proper beverage to serve with oriental foods and most people will prefer a "brisk" tea blended especially for American palates. Use either loose tea or "flo-thru" tea bags and start off with fesh cold water. Bring it to a fast rolling boil and brew the tea for 5 full minutes in a teapot which has been rinsed with scalding water. You'll have a delightful beverage that rates the ringing of a bell — or sounding of a gong!

"HO-CHIH" RICE WITH MEAT AND SHRIMP

2½ cups water
4 Lipton Flo-Thru Tea Bags
2 cups packaged precooked rice
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
½ cup chopped onion
1½ cups diced cooked ham
1 cup diced cooked beef
1 cup small cooked shrimp or chopped large shrimp
Dash of Tabasco
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
2 eggs, well beaten
1 cup chopped salted peanuts
1 cup toasted coconut

In large saucepan, bring water to a boil; add Flo-Thru tea bags; cover and brew 5 minutes. Remove tea bags; stir in rice and salt. Cover; let stand 5 minutes.

In medium skillet, melt 2 tablespoons butter; saute onion, ham, beef, and shrimp until onion is tender. Fold mixture and Tabasco into rice. Cover; keep warm over low heat.

Meanwhile, in the same skillet, melt butter. Add eggs to make a thin omelet. Then cut into 1-inch strips. Garnish rice mixture with omelet strips. Serve with chopped peanuts and toasted coconut. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

ZESTY ORANGE marmalade, laced with ginger and soy, bastes Spareribs Cantonese.

An American Food With Chinese Touch

When the Chinese came to America in the 19th century to build railroads and to dig for gold, they began a new chapter in the history of American, as well as Oriental, culinary arts. Since the majority of these people were from Canton, Americans first became familiar with the popular vershions of Cantonese food . . . such as Chop Suey — which is a variation of a Cantonese dish known as Sub Gum.

Today, we still look forward to a fruitful exchange of cookery ideas between East and West, and to many exciting combinations of food like these tender Spareribs Cantonese, from the new Better Homes and Gardens So Good With Fruit cook book — on sale March 15. The zesty orange flavor, matched with Oriental ginger and soy, is sure to please the palate of the most discriminating gourmet. This is only one of over 400 delicious fruit-accented dishes you will discover in So Good With Fruit, which also features sparkling, full-color photographs of many recipes.

Russian Tea Cake —Is It Authentic?

We can't guarantee that this Russian Tea Cake has a true Russian origin, but we do know that it isn't often that you see a cake recipe that uses tea as an ingredient.

But whether it came straight from Moscow, or from the creative mind of a Russian Tea Room chef, we offer it here.

The tea called for in the cake is not the only thing unusual about the cake. Instead of a filling and frosting, orange marmalade is spread between the layers and on top of the cake and sugar is sprinkled around the edge of the top layer. Paper thin slices of lemon add a final touch. Serve it with tea.

Russian Tea Cake

2½ cups sifted cake flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup cold strong tea
¼ cup milk
2-3 cup margarine
1¼ cups sugar
2 eggs
1½ teaspoons grated lemon rind
½ cup orange marmalade
Paper thin lemon slices
Sugar
Maraschino cherries, sliced

Grease 2 (8-inch) layer cake pans; line bottoms with waxed paper. Sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Combine tea and milk. Set both mixtures aside. Blend margarine and 1¼ cups sugar. Add eggs, 1 at a time, blending until smooth. Add lemon rind. Stir in sifted dry ingredients alternately with tea and milk, beginning and ending with dry ingredients and stirring until smooth after each addition. Pour into prepared cake pan. Bake in 375 degrees F. (moderate) oven until cake tests done, 30 to 35 minutes. Cool. Spread top of each layer with orange marmalade. Stack. Sprinkle around edge of top layer. Decorate top of cake with lemon slices and marachino cherry slices. Makes 1 (8-inch) layer cake.

MELLOW BLENDING of flavors in Sweet-Sour Tuna makes ordinary ingredients into an excitingly different dish.

Sweet-Sour Tuna: Savory Inspiration

Sweet-Sour Tuna is only one of over 400 delicious recipes featuring fresh, new combinations of fruit with fish, meat, and vegetables in the new Better Homes and Gardens cook book — So Good With Fruit.

SWEET-SOUR TUNA

Mix 1 table spoon cornstarch with remaining pineapple syrup, 1 teaspoon soy sauce, 1 tablespoon vinegar, and 3 table spoons sugar; stir into pineapple mixture. Cook, stirring constantly, till thickened and bubbling.

Stir in one 6½ or 7-ounce can tuna, drained, and 1 tablespoon butter or margarine. Heat through. Serve on warm chow mein noodles (one 3-ounce can). Serves 4.

Get Acquainted With The Black Angus Chuck Wagon

BY NOW MOST OF YOU are familiar with the "All you can eat" restaurants, and one that is extra special in this food category is the new Black Angus Chuck Wagon at 28th Avenue and El Camino. The chow line starts at one end of the covered "All you can eat" display table, which showcases an array of tantalizing food suggestions including everything from country-style Lamb Stew to Cat Fish mid-west style. Carlo Fasolo, "Wagon Master" of this food spread, and no new hand at the restaurant business, is mighty proud of his Black Angus "Food Bonanza." The "Get acquainted" prices, which you will note in their advertisement, are in a bracket that will make you say "Howdy pardner" without hesitation. Bring the youngsters. Kiddies under eight years of age can call for all the ice cream and sherbet they can eat. Chef James Pearce is the kitchen expert responsible for the "food productions" here. Come early and avoid standing in a waiting line — Luncheon, dinner and cocktails of your choice.

IF YOUR GROUP is having a banquet in the near future, and you are in charge of the planning, call cordial Phil Rauscher, General Manager of the International Inn restaurant, South San Francisco, who will be happy to arrange all the party details, including a special menu . . . How many of you can honestly say you don't care for fried chicken? In case there happens to be one exception of the opinion that all do care for it, your Bright Lighter suggests you try Farm-Fried Chicken as prepared at Foster's Coffee Shop and Pancake House, located right across from the Emporium in Hillsdale. The method of cooking is entirely new — and the secret recipe was perfected in Fosters Research Kitchen. Enjoy their generous servings in the homey atmosphere of the dining room, or take home a bucket . . . Dave Rapken did a smart bit of booking in Bill Willoughby, a tall, handsome and very funny new comedian in the otherwise all-topless show at the Moulin Rouge.

VERSATILE STEVE BAKER, "The World's Most Neurotic Magician," will magically appear at the Oakland Auditorium Theater Wednesday night, April 19, at 8:30 p.m., with special guest stars to entertain or be turned into rabbits, who knows! Finocchio's Revue Features Russell Reid

Russell Reid, the "ton of fun" singer in Finocchio's revue (he's really only 398 pounds!), shakes like an old Model-T Ford as he puts all his energy into a wild rendition of "You Gotta See Your Mama Every Night, etc." Not one of the glamorous-type of female impersonators, Reid is a tremendous entertainer of the old burlesque school. His red wig is the most fiery this side of the old Chicago holocaust.

"Pooped Papas" See Clare and Ray Stern

Many thanks to Clare and Ray Stern for showing your Bright Lighter the way to lose extra pounds at their "far out" Health Club and Spa (225 Baldwin Avenue, San Mateo). Four months ago, Yours Truly weighed a "fat" 203. Tuesday night the Toledos tiped at 182. One thing for sure: "Bud" at Roos-Atkins doesn't mind a bit — it's cause for new suits and shirts. If you're a "Pooped Papa," talk to the Sterns.

☆

The Sandbagger (on James Avenue in Redwood City), owned and operated by ex-pro golfer Dave McSwain, is a "19th hole" haven for linksmen. You'll find the cocktail lounge walls are covered with photos of past and present tournament champions, and even a duffer, or two. Of course, with knowledgeable Dave leading the way, the conversation usually turns to the topic on everyones' mind. Even the "hackers" pick up hints that help their game. Try the Sandbagger soon. Can't guarantee you'll improve your putting, but can promise great steaks and lobster tails.

Expect a big announcement son from Wayne Manor, the Sunnyvale nightclub which was featured in Life Magazine for its surrealistic Batman decor and entertainment program. The news will be revealed in a fantastic "Happening" directed by Manager Jay De Keyser.

The chefs behind the culinary know-how at this very busy restaurant cater to a man's appetite with finesse. Make no mistake, Vince's restaurant is a dining must and a friendly cocktail retreat, day and night.

Villa Hotel's Dine, Cocktail and Fun Package

Another big scoop for the Villa Hotel is the opening of the plush, new Upper Level restaurant "Just For Steaks."

The ultimate in elegant dining, the Upper Level restaurant comfortably seats up to 50 persons in red leather booths situated near a crackling fireplace. Service from 6 p.m. to 11 p.m. except Sunday and Monday, featuring the "Just For Steaks" policy.

Miss Powell is especially familiar to Bay Area audiences through her appearances at the Circle Star Theater in San Carlos.

Comedian Dave Barry, top supper club and television entertainer, will also be featured in the show. Barry recently concluded a 10-month run starring in "Hello America," the lavish extravaganza at the Desert Inn, Las Vegas.

There will be no increase in prices during Miss Powell's show. 9 p.m. and 12 nightly and on Fridays and Saturdays at 8 p.m., 10 p.m. and 12:30 a.m.

Ted Ince, General Manager of Oakland's Sea Wolf restaurant, was a recent Peninsula visitor and selected Scotty Campbell's in Redwood City in which to wine and dine his guests. His Prime Rib dinner report was on the rave side. Prime Rib Dinner Holiday Inn Feature

Prime Rib Dinner, one of the special menu attractions at the Holiday Inn in South San Francisco, is cause for much comment from the crowds of satisfied patrons. Dapper Claude Schroder, the Inn's Food and Beverage Manager and a "pro" in the restaurant business, can certainly be praised for the fine job he's doing. The Holiday Inn qualifies as one of the finest dining establishments in the Bay Area.

Try Beautiful Beef For Party Roasts

Versatile western beef roasts are the spring hostess' choice for parties. From elegant rib roasts to flavorful pot roasts, excellent western beef is always popular and easy to plan for small or large groups.

The secret to a handsomely browned standing rib roast done to perfection is slow roasting in an open pan. A meat thermometer eliminates guesswork as to degree of doneness. For easy carving, let the roast stand a few minutes after removing from the oven. Other popular cuts for dry heat roasting are rolled rib roast, sirloin tip, rib eye and cross rib of beef.

When the occasion is more informal, a top quality pot roast has as much nourishment and flavor as the more expensive cuts when properly cooked. These less tender cuts are browned first, then roasted, covered, with some liquid. For a company best version, simmer boneless rump roast in tomato and wine sauce along with artichokes, onions and carrots. Beef chuck, either boneless or blade bone and arm bone cuts, is another excellent choice for pot roasting.

Beef short ribs, the tip ends from standing rib roasts, make tender baby pot roasts. Here we've simmered them in zesty barbecue sauce for an interesting flavor variation.

STANDING RIB ROAST

For special occasion dinners, serve elegant roast of beef on your most handsome silver platter.

4 to 6-pound standing rib
Salt
Pepper

Remove beef from refrigerator; season with salt and pepper to taste. Place fat side up on rack in shallow pan. Insert meat thermometer so tip will be in center. Roast in moderately slow oven (325 degrees F.) about 1½ hours for rare or to desired degree of doneness. Let roast stand 20 minutes in warm place before carving. It will continue to cook after taken from oven.

Rare, minutes per pound, 18 to 20; internal temperature, 130 degrees F.

Medium rare, 22; 140 degrees F.

Well done, 27; 160 degrees F.

Slice to serve. Makes 8 or more servings.

BEEF POT ROAST BURGUNDY

This beef and vegetable entree needs only French bread, fruit and cheese to complete the menu.

4 to 5-pound boneless rump roast
2 tablespoons butter
¾ cup burgundy
2 tablespoons tomato paste
Salt
6 whole peppercorns
4 finely chopped cloves garlic
2-inch strip orange peel
1-inch stick cinnamon
4 whole cloves
8 artichokes
Water
2 lemons
1 pound boiling onions
8 small carrots

Brown pot roast in butter. Add 1-3 cup wine combined with tomato paste, 2 teaspoons salt, peppercorns, garlic, orange peel cinnamon and cloves. Cover and roast in slow oven (275 degrees F.) 2 hours. Peel off tough outer leaves and cut off tips of artichokes. Cut in half lengthwise, scoop out choke. Parboil in salted water to which juice squeezed from lemons has been added. Add artichokes, peeled onions, scraped carrots and remaining wine to meat. Cover and continue cooking 1 hour longer until tender. Slice meat and serve with vegetables. Thicken pan juices for gravy if desired. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

BARBECUE BEEF SHORT RIBS

Cook, covered on top of the stove or bake in the oven for tender juicy beef.

3 pounds beef short ribs
1 finely chopped onion
¼ cup vinegar
2 tablespoons sugar
1 cup catsup
½ cup water
3 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
½ cup finely chopped celery
2 teaspoons salt

Cut short ribs into serving pieces. Brown slowly in heavy skillet turning frequently. Pour off fat. Combine remaining ingredients and pour over short ribs. Cover and cook slowly 1½ to 2 hours until tender. Or bake in moderately slow oven (325 degrees F.). Makes 4 to 5 servings.

STANDING RIB ROAST

Plenty of Chicken Available at Market

There is plenty of chicken availbale for every pot these days according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture's recent reports on poultry.

Chicken has never been more plentiful — our supply is at an all-time high — and the government says we have 429,616,000 pounds in storage holdings this year as compared to 285,376,000 pounds in 1966.

Since abundant quantity is usually reflected in lower prices, the "Glad" Home Service Group has selected two chicken recipes to help the homemaker take advantage of the good buys and, at the same time, give her family a variety of taste treats.

The first is Chicken Piquant and the secret is in the sauce.

Combine and bring to a boil:
2 jars currant jelly
1 large glass water
2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
4 tablespoons lemon juice
2 tablespoons cornstarch
3 teaspoons allspice

Arrange 12 chicken breasts in an uncovered roasting pan and pour the sauce over them. Bake at 450 degrees for 15 minutes. Reduce oven to 375 degrees and bake one hour. Baste frequently. Place chicken on platter. Serve sauce separately.

For Chicken Tarragon, cut a roasting chicken into serving pieces and season with salt, pepper and garlic salt. Heat three -tablespoons butter in heavy saucepan. Brown chicken slowly. Remove.

Saute one-cup sliced mushrooms for four minutes (add more butter if necessary). Remove.

Put back chicken, sprinkle with three tablespoons tarragon, add mushrooms and one cup chicken bouillon. Cover and simmer one hour.

If you have a freezer, you may save time and money by making double the recipe. After the chicken has simmered 30 minutes, remove half of all ingredients to a casserole. Cool, cover with "Glad" freezer wrap and freeze. On serving day, remove freezer wrap and heat in 350 degrees oven for one and a half hours.

Beef-Filled Tacos Hearty

Beef-Filled Tacos make hearty snacks for teens. Brown 1 pound ground beef, ¼ cup chopped green pepper and ½ cup chopped onion in 2 tablespoons cooking oil. Add 2 teaspoons chili powder, ¾ teaspoon garlic salt and 1 (8-ounce) can tomato sauce. Spoon into 8 taco shells and top with shredded lettuce and cheese.

Greeks Originated Pastry; Romans Took It Home

Did you know that pastry was originated by the Greeks and the recipe taken home by the Roman conquerors? The new delicacy spread throughout Europe where every country adapted pastry to its native foods.

The women of Colonial America did the same thing, and regional pies developed throughout the land as fillings were limited by the foods grown on their farms.

In modern America we can have ingredients from all over the world. We enjoy an endless variety of pies and women go on inventing new variations on pastry and fillings.

Still, apple, cherry and pumpkin pies continue to be top favorites. Here's a truly spectacular cherry pie that could be termed "food for the gods." It's Cherry Pie Alaska!

A tender, flaky crust is made the good and easy way with Pie Crust Sticks. It is filled with a layer of ice cream, a layer of jewel-toned cherry pie filling and topped with golden swirled meringue. What heavenly eating this picturesque pie provides and yet it is simple to make Do try it soon.

Here is the recipe:

CHERRY PIE ALASKA

Prepare 9-inch Baked Pie Shell as directed on inside wrapper of Pie Crust Sticks. Cool. Gently pack 1 pint vanilla ice cream into cooled pie shell; freeze overnight. Heat 1 can (1 pound 5 ounces) cherry pie filling to boiling over medium heat, stirring constantly. Boil 1 minute. Cool thoroughly; refrigerate. Just before serving, heat oven to 500 degrees. Spread cherry pie filling over ice cream; place in freezer while preparing meringue (below). Working quickly, top with meringue carefully sealing to edge of crust. Place pie on dampened cutting board; bake 3 to 5 minutes or until a delicate brown. Serve immediately. 6 to 8 servings.

Meringue: Beat 3 egg whites with ¼ teaspoon cream of tartar until frothy. Gradually beat in 6 tablespoons sugar; continue beating until stiff and glossy.

IN A DILEMMA about your first buffet supper? Are time, budget and ideas at low ebb? Then beguile them with broilers and stuffing enhanced with condensed cream of mushroom soup. You'll be proud of your choice because it has elegance with a flair and there's sheer heaven in the eating.

A Budget Buffet For Young Hostess

When you invited the Smith's for supper last week, it all seemed a lark. But now, the day has arrived with its problems. Time is short, the budget is low, and all those good ideas for the menu have flown to the winds.

What about chicken and seafood? It's amazing how elegant you can make them with a can of condensed soup. Worry, begone.

With a little mental organizing on the way to the supermarket, and a little imagination on the way home, you'll come-up with some inexpensive choices that can be as pleasing to your guests as the costly ones.

Let's explore some ways to be "organized."

. . . don't forget to make the first course soup, beautiful soup. Serve it from a tray in cups in the living room. You'll find that soup is a great meal-stretcher aand man-pleaser.

. . . plan your party menus and prepare any dishes that you can several days in advance.

. . . when shopping, take a list, leaving way for some alternates in case one food is a better buy at the time.

. . . The simplest foods will take an added glamour and flavor when you give them a pretty dressing of parsley, pimiento, or a golden Cheddar cheese soup sauce.

Here's how you can beguile them with broilers or send them home happy with seafood.

Spiced Consomme
Baked Stuffed Broilers
Brussels Sprouts with Water Chestnuts
Tomato-Artichoke Salad with French Dressing
Fruit Compote with Wine
Coffee Milk

BEGUILING BAKED STUFFED BROILERS

1 can (10½ ounces) condensed cream of mushroom soup
2 tablespoons water
1¾ cups herb seasoned stuffing
½ cup chopped celery
2 tablespoons chopped onion
1 tablespoon chopped parsley
2 broilers, split
2 tablespoons butter or margarine, softened
¼ teaspoon tarragon leaves, crushed

Blend soup and water; mix lightly with stuffing, celery, onion, and parsley. Lightly salt and pepper chicken cavity; place ½ cup stuffing mixture in cavity of each piece of chicken. Place skin side up in well-greased roasting pan. Combine softened butter and tarragon; coat broilers. Bake at 350 degrees F. for 1 hour; increase heat to 375 deegrees F. Bake an additional 15 minutes or until chicken is golden brown and tender. Makes 4 servings.

"PLEASE HIM SEAFOOD SCALLOP"

1 pound fresh or frozen fish fillets (thawed)
1 can (8 ounces) whole kernel corn, drained
1 can (10¼ ounces) frozen condensed clam chowder (New England style)
½ cup milk
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
½ cup herb seasoned stuffing
1 tablespoon melted butter
Lemon wedges

Arrange fish fillets in shallow baking dish 12x8x2". Spoon corn over fish. Combine soup, milk, and parsley; heat, stirring now and then. Pour over fish and corn. Toss stuffing with butter; sprinkle over top of casserole. Bake at 375°F. about 30 minutes or until fish is easily flaked with folk. Serve with lemon wedges. Makes 4 servings.

'PLEASE HIM SHRIMP SOUP"

1 can (10 ounces) frozen condensed cream of shrimp soup
1 soup can water
½ cup chopped canned tomatoes
Dash crushed leaf thyme

Combine soup and water. Heat until soup is partially thawed. Add tomatoes and theyme. Continue heating; stir now and then. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

Tangy Sauce Accompanies An Avocado

A tangy sauce makes a perfect accompaniment for avocado.

First-course Avocado
Lamb Chops
French-fried Potatoes
Julienne Green Beans and Carrots
Strawberry Tart Beverage

FIRST-COURSE AVOCADO

1 medium ripe avocado, chilled
1 tablespoon olive oil
½ tablespoon each cider vinegar and chili sauce
¼ teaspoon salt
Pinch of white pepper

Just before serving, cut avocado in half lengthwise; do not peel. Twist apart and remove seed; place each half on a bread-and-butter plate. In a small container, with a fork, thoroughly beat together the remaining ingredients; spoon dressing — 1 tablespoon for each — into avocado cavities. Serve at once with teaspoons for scooping out pulp and dressing. (A half-tablespoon now comes in a measuring-spoon set; if this isn't at hand, remember that 1½ teaspoons is the equivalent of ½ tablespoon.)

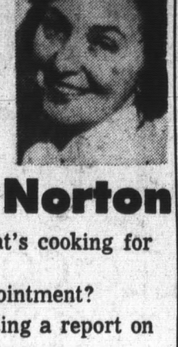
Sugar 'n Spice

Meat Balls



Nell Norton

Good morning, good cooks. What's cooking for you today?

Are you hurrying to a dental appointment?

Planning a Scout meeting? Writing a report on your sorority tea?

No?

Good, that means you have time to enjoy a second cup of coffee and think about some new ideas for meals.

Let's start off with this very interesting entree, it uses our favorite meat — hamburger — and is really quite easy to make. It's different and delicious, using spices, raisins and even gingersnaps to give it that old paz-azz.

SAUERBRATEN MEAT BALLS

1 lb. ground beef
¼ cup fine dry bread crumbs
2-3 cup chopped onion
1 teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
2-3 cup evaporated milk
2 tablespoons butter

Mix together the one pound of ground beef, the one-fourth cup crumbs, two-thirds cup chopped onion, one teaspoon salt, dash of pepper and two-thirds cup evaporated milk in a medium sized mixing bowl.

Shape into 12 meat balls (or 40 small balls for Swedish-style meat balls). Melt the two tablespoons butter in a large skillet over medium heat. Add meat balls, turning occasionally to brown on all sides.

SAUCE

1 cup water
2-tablespoons vinegar
2 tablespoons catsup
1 tablespoon brown sugar
8 peppercorns
1 bay leaf, crumbled
½ teaspon salt
1-3 cup raisins
6 gingersnaps, crushed (about 6 tablespoons of crumbs)

While the meat balls are browning, mix the cup of water, two tablespoons vinegar, two tablespoons catsup, one tablespoon brown sugar, eight peppercorns, one bay leaf, one-half teaspoon salt, one-thrid cup of raisins and six crushed gingersnaps in a small bowl. When meat balls are browned, add water mixture and stir gently to mix well. Bring to a boil over medium heat, cover skillet tightly and turn heat to low and simmer 15 minutes; stir, cover and cook 15 minutes longer. Makes 6 servings.

WOULD it awaken a horrible memory if I asked you if you have ever made a pie and accidentally dropped it upside down on the floor. I think my reaction to such a catastrophe would be to fall down on the floor beside the pie and kick and scream.

To head off such a dreadful eventuality as a pie upside down on the floor you can make an upside down pie, so that if it falls on the floor no one will notice the difference. "Would you believe . . .?"

UPSIDE-DOWN APPLE PIE

3 cups sliced apples
2 tablespoons butter
½ cup walnut halves
1-3 cup brown sugar
½ cup white sugar
2 tablespoons flour
½ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon nutmeg

Melt the two tablespoons butter and pour in a nine-inch pie pan. Place the one-half cup walnuts in pan and sprinkle with the one-third cup brown sugar.

Combine the one-half cup white sugar, two tablespoons flour, one-half teaspoon cinnamon, one-fourth teaspoon nutmeg and one-fourth teaspoon salt. Add this mixture to the three cups sliced apples.

Roll out the pastry and place one-half the pastry in the pie pan, on top of the butter, nuts and brown sugar. Fill with the apple mixture. Place the other half of rolled-out pastry on top of apples. Seal edges and prick with a fork. Bake at 375 degrees for 30 to 35 minutes. Remove from oven and cool five minutes. Turn upside down on large plate. Serve warm.

PASTRY

1¼ cup sifted flour
½ teaspoon salt
1-3 cup shortening
1 egg
1 tablespoon lemon juice

Sift the one and one-half cups of flour and one-half teaspoon salt into a bowl. Cut in the one-third cup shortening. Beat the egg and one tablespoon lemon juice together. Add to the flour mixture. Chill in wax paper. Roll out on a lightly floured board and fit into pie pan.

Color in the Garden? Plant Some Petunias

For color, scads of it, from late Spring, throughout the Summer and well into Fall, plant petunias. You can plant them in the ground, in huge or small pots on patios or steps, and you can grow them in baskets suspended from the roof overhang. You can grow them in huge masses of a single color or you can mix them similar to the colors in a Persian carpet. They have such fresh "eye appeal" that they capture the lion's share of attention regardless of whether you grow them by the dozen or by the hundreds.

The petunia is a perennial which we gardeners on the Peninsula grow and treat as an annual. The original petunias (our present day petunias are a long cry from the originals) which came to us from Argentina. Originally, there were three types, axillaris, a white flowered ancestor of today's garden petunia with a night fragrance; hybrida, the common garden petunia which was the result of a cross between the variety above and violacea, a weak-stemmed plant with small violet or rose-red flowers. The name, by-the-way is a Latinized version of the South American vernacular for them.

Most of the modern petunias are F-1 hybrids which means the plants are sturdier, stockier and more floriferous. The flowers have cleaner, more vivid colors (even the whites have a glistening vibrancy) and greater size. Plants are also more vigorous, ultimate height more uniform and the colors more stable. Most of the F-1 hybrid petunias are self-sterile, they must be hand-pollinated in order to produce seed.

Today we classify petunias into three groups, the F-1 zhybrid Grandiflora which gives us sturdy plants that grow 15 to 20 inches high and 24 to 36 inches across. The flowers are usually single, ruffled or single and measure four or more inche across. Flower colors are white, ink, rose, salmon, red, scarlet and blue. The Cascade series of petunias are members of the F-1 Hybrid Grandiflora group. The Cascading growth makes them ideal for use in hanging baskets, window boxes and at the top of wood, concrete and rock walls.

The second group is the F-1 Hybrid Multiflora. The plants in this group are about the same as in the group above but the flowers are slightly smaller and smooth-edged, and may be either single or double. The F-1 Hybrid Multiforas are resistant to botrytis disease which disfigures the blossoms in humid weather. There are many named varieties in this group with flower color ranging from pink to rose, salmon, yellow, white and even blue.

Vines Put on Big Show in Garden

The biggest show-offs in the plant world are the vines. Who can dispute this after seeing a high-climbing bougainvillea in full bloom or a wisteria that covers a country mile of arbor. Even our more refined and confined vines such as clematis are more than most flowering shrubs or trees could hope to compete with.

We asked the California Association of Nurserymen for a rundown on some of the showiest summer vines. Here are some of their recommendations: For a gaudy display, try one of the bougainvilleas. These are part and parcel of California history, having arrived not long after the Mission fathers and the grape. There is nothing more colorful for draping a pergola or a roof. It is not the flowers which provide color, rather it is the showy bracts which surround the rather insignificant flowers. Color is not always magenta or purple, as some think, for we now have "California Gold," "Pink Tiara," and "Orange King."

Scarlet Trumpet Vine is a wide-ranging vine with a mass of big, fluted blooms, scarlet at the lip, yellow-orange in the throat. A mature vine will nearly smother a large house unless it is kept trimmed.

Guinea Gold Vine is a woody vine with glossy, dark green leaves and a generous sprinkling of open-faced, gold blooms primarily in the warm months but often in good supply throughout the year, especially in coastal areas.

Clematis in its many forms is a vine of refined habit and an unbelievably beautiful show of flowers, be they white, lavender, blue or pink, C.A.N. members recommend the lavender Jackmani Clemantis with its huge blooms, often eight inches across. And the evergreen Armandi Clemantis is a grand show of white in early spring. There may be showier vines than clematis, but none more beautiful.

Druggist Jack Beal of the Linda Mar Pharmacy soon after went outside to clean up the area. Finding the lunch bag, Beal noted its contents:

Three waxed paper sandwich bags containing not sandwiches, but "vegetable matter" that Beal determined to be marijuana.

He called Pacifica police to report his find.

Beal told the authorities each bag weighed about one ounce.

New S.S.F. Fire Truck

A new fire truck will be added to the South San Francisco Fire Departmene in order to equip the new station planned for the Westborough community.

The council adopted a resolution calling for bids on the equipment Monday.

The truck is expected to be delivered in about nine months, City Manager Eugene Aiello said, but the Westborough station will not be completed by that time.

Drunk Test Wins First County Case

An intoxication-measuring device put into use last fall has won its first test in a San Mateo County jury trial.

The accuracy of the device, called a Breathalyzer, was challenged in the trial of Michael D. Winders, 24, of 450 Alta Vista Drive, South San Francisco, before a jury in the courtroom of Municipal Judge F. Jose de Larios in South San Francisco.

Winders was convicted of drunken driving and is scheduled to be sentenced at 11 a.m. April 25.

The prosecutor, Deputy District Attorney John Juergens, submitted evidence that the Breathalyzer registered .15, a reading that is generally considered evidence of drunkenness. The evidence was challenged by defense attorney John D. Hedger.

All persons arrested on suspicion of drunken driving are required to submit to a chemical test or suffer suspension of their driver's license for six months. The suspect is given the choice of three types of test — blood, urine or breath.

Fast Justice For Artist

Justice was swift for Richard Evan Gibbs, a 6-foot-7 artist, in the courtoom of Superior Judte Edmund Scott.

In one day's time a jury was impaneled, Gibbs was tried and convicted of a charge of second-degree burglary, and he was sentenced to state prison. In most cases the process takes weeks to complete.

Gibbs, 36, 491 Taylor Avenue, San Bruno, was arrested January 30 crouching in a light well above a San Bruno bar, in the roof of which he had cut a hole.

The bushy-haired and mustachioed Gibbs, who participated in prison art shows during his last two terms there for burglary, asked to be sentenced immediately after he was convicted. Judge Scott accommodated him.

Fraud Trial Set May 23

Mrs. Lupe L. Fregoso, 44, of 1064 Skyline Drive, Daly City, is scheduled to stand trial May 23 on charges of welfare fraud.

Inspector Jack F. Stuart of the district attorney's office charged that Mrs. Fregoso failed to report that a man, George Salcedo, was living in her home at a time she was getting welfare assistance for herself and five children.

Salcedo, who was working part time and receiving VA beneifts, was arrested for failure to support his own minor child in San Francisco.

Stuart said Mrs. Fregoso's actions resulted in an overpayment of $104 in welfare funds.

She pleaded not guilty to the charges in Municipal Court in South San Francisco.
